We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

Catechetical Sunday - September 20

This weekend we celebrate Catechetical Sunday, and we want to thank our many parishioners who serve as catechists and volunteers this year. With so many changes and adjustments upon us, we recognize the sacrifices and the sharing of your time and talent.

The word catechist comes from the Greek word meaning to echo. St. James is truly blessed by so many who share their gifts, and echo their faith, with the younger generation in our parish.

Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith.

The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph is committed to combatting sexual abuse in the Church. If you are a victim of sexual abuse, or if you observe or suspect sexual abuse:

1. Call the Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.392.3738 (if the victim is currently under the age of 18), and
2. Contact your local law enforcement agency or call 911, and
3. After reporting to these civil and law enforcement authorities, report suspected sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult to the Diocesan Ombudsman, Joe Crayon, at 816.812.2500 or crayon@ombudsmankcsj.org, if the abuse involves a priest, deacon, employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph.

The Diocese has a sincere commitment to providing care and healing resources to victims of sexual abuse and their families. Please contact the Victim Advocate, Kathleen Chastain, at 816.392.0011 or chastain@diocesekcsj.org for more information.

From the Pastor's Pen

With Fall upon us, we enter into a new time of year. But everything is 'new' as we journey through this pandemic!

This past weekend, we have had the largest crowd we have had in over 7 months. We had over 670 people total at all our weekend Masses. Thanks so much for families returning – it's great to see so many families with children.

We realize that there are many elderly and those with 'compromised' immune systems, so I understand why they cannot and should not be with us each weekend. That's why we are able to 'upgrade' our Live-stream Mass. We are so very grateful for Quinn Knabe's faithfulness in taping it for us each and every weekend!

As I mentioned this past weekend, it's important that we try to come back to Church. If we can bring our families to crowded places like Walmart, we can surely take the risk of coming to Mass. I think each of our families would benefit greatly!

Many of us have gotten into the 'habit' of not coming to church on the weekends. We just need to try to make it a priority for all of us! Bishop Johnston still has the 'dispensation' for us to watch the Live-stream Mass and we certainly hope you will if you cannot join us!

Don't forget that our RE and Confirmation programs are beginning this month. Lori Tajchman with her great leadership, along with some very dedicated volunteers, have put together programs to help guide our young people in their faith. Sacramental prep programs are also getting underway for the sacrament of First Reconciliation and Communion. Lori and her team are accommodating all families, with either 'virtual' or 'in-person' programs.

Please families, take advantage of these opportunities and come and join us! Lori and her dedicated folks are here to serve and guide our young people in the ways of their relationship with God!

Let us pray in gratitude for all involved in education – our teachers and staff of all our schools, as this is a 'most' challenging year! Special thanks for our St. James Parish and School staff who have made our school opening go as smoothly as possible. We are entering our fifth week of school and haven't had any issues (beyond the normal stresses of 'pandemic life').

So we thank God and pray that we might all continue to be safe and healthy in all that we do!

Know that Fr. Michael and I and all our staff are here to serve you in whatever way we can help.

Blessings to you and all your family. Fr. Mike

Liturgy/Music Office

CONGREGATIONAL SINGING RETURNS!

I am thrilled to announce that we can finally start singing again during Mass. Bishop Johnston has given permission to those parishes that wear masks the entire time to once again sing together as one body in Christ. Now, because of the risk of contracting the virus on surfaces, we still have to keep our hymnals put away. But, there are 2 ways you can follow along and sing the music and see the readings. On our website each week-end the worship aid is uploaded for you to view and/or download. Your second option is the QR code in the gathering space. From any smart phone, you can download a free QR code reader from your app store. Many restaurants now have their menus on table tents with a QR code. This past weekend we only had 24 scans. But hopefully now with the return of congregational singing, more people will take advantage of the QR code.

Again we thank you for wearing your mask while in church. Because of your willingness to abide by county health guidelines, we are able to sing again!

God Bless,

Daniel A. Baker-Director of Liturgy and Music

Someone is Watching and Wondering

The first chapter of Gaudium et Spes (The Church in the Modern World) is titled "The Dignity of the Human Person" begins with defining humans. The bishops begin by referencing Genesis, restating that God created human beings in the divine likeness, as social creatures needing companionship, and God blessed them. Soon after creation, humanity attempted to separate themselves from the Creator. We can see the results recorded throughout our history. If we examine our own hearts, we may indeed find an inclination toward disrupted relationships and our ongoing struggle between light and darkness. If, however, we believe that God sent Jesus to be light to the world, to strengthen us with grace, and free us from the darkness, then there is always hope. The bishops also state that humans have both a physical body and a divine soul, which are undivided and constitute the whole person. Understand this point, when we probe the depths of our human nature we discover God's presence, and begin to understand our sharing in the light of the divine mind. We find a wisdom that perfects intelligence, and leads us to desire goodness and truth. Furthermore, we are capable of experiencing divine love and become witnesses to that love when we share His love with others. Authentic freedom does not mean "doing whatever we please", rather it flows from attentive listening to our conscience, and following what it dictates. We are graced with the potential to choose good, accepting God as our strength and guide. Faith fills us with hope and God's promise of eternal life. Our hope in eternity, however, does not diminish human life but moves us to live with "great nobility" and nourish the love which God places in our hearts. "The mystery of the human person is centered in [the] divine core, revealed through Christ, and stirring us to full humanity."

In Chapter 2 –The Community of Humankind – the bishops state, "For God. . . desires that all people become one family with love for God and neighbor as the basis. . . whoever loves God must love neighbor or the love [of God] is false." We reach our true identity and human potential by pursuing oneness with all other human beings. Clearly the advancement of our society towards the common good depends on Jesus' command to love and serve one another. The universal call to human dignity leads us to understand that everyone must have food, clothing, and shelter, the right to freely choose a state of life, to establish a family, to education, employment, to follow one's own conscience, protection, privacy, and to practice religion. Society must be rooted in truth, justice and love, "everyone must consider his or her neighbor, without exception, another self," leaving no room for bigotry, discrimination, or hatred.

Your Sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

National Day of Prayer and Fasting
September 24, 2020

A call to pray and fast for God's mercy on our land and the healing and conversion of our hearts.

Learn more at actsxxix.org/national-day-prayer-fasting

Fr. John Riccardo and the team of the non-profit apostolate ACTS XXIX are calling for a National Day of Prayer and Fasting on September 24, 2020.

"Looking at all that's happening in our country right now, it seems we're in need of a lot of things," says Fr. Riccardo, ACTS XXIX Executive Director. "Policy and law are crucial, to be sure. But as important as these are, they can't fix the root problem. The real problem of American culture today is that our hearts are messed up. Only God can fix the human heart, and He loves doing that."

"This is not about politics or any particular social movement or even the November election," Fr. Riccardo cautions. "This is about asking for God's mercy on our nation and for the healing of our hearts – all of our hearts, starting with mine."

His hope is that the entire country, Christians, Jews, Muslims, and all people of good will, would set September 24 aside as a true holy day, forego food until dinner, and pray for the conversion of hearts.

For more information about ACTS XXIX, their mission, and their call for September 24 as a National Day of Prayer and Fasting, visit ActsXXIX.org.

Helping Hands Ministry Available Only at 5:00pm Saturday Masses

Sometimes it can be a challenge for parishioners who are older and/or have mobility problems to attend weekend Mass easily. The walk from the car may be too long or the stairs difficult to navigate.

At our Saturday 5:00pm Masses volunteers from our HELPING HANDS MINISTRY will provide assistance to those needing some extra help reaching the sanctuary on the upper level of the building to attend Mass.

To use this service, please make a reservation. This ensures that we have enough volunteers available. Please follow the steps below.

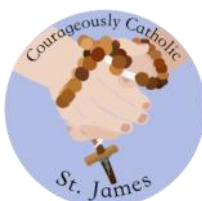

- 1 A few days before you plan to attend the 5:00pm Saturday Mass, make a reservation by calling Daryl Sweetland in the parish office, 781-4343, extension 200, by 4:00pm on Friday. Leave a message on her voice mail if you are unable to talk with her personally.
- 2 When arriving at the church, park in one of the spaces on the south side of the church or behind the church as close to the south side as possible.
- 3 Enter the lower level of the church through the south door (near the dumpster). There will be a HELPING HANDS ENTRANCE sign near the door.
- 4 Please take a seat in one of the chairs near the door and a volunteer will be available shortly to assist you to your seat in the church; wheelchairs are available if needed.

After Mass, a volunteer will assist you in returning to the lower level.

This service is available only for the 5:00pm Saturday Mass. We hope to be able to extend this service to other weekend Masses in the future.
