Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

Thank You St. James

The St James Respect Life Group would once again like to thank you all for your generous donations to Love INC.

We were able to fill three trunks full of much needed toiletries for those most in need in our very own communities. They were very thankful for the supplies and we were so proud to tell them they came from St James parishioners.

If you have a passion for helping others and standing up for all life please consider joining our group! We meet virtually the 2nd Monday of every month. Contact Jenn or Shanna at stjamesrespectlife@gmail.com.

From the Pastor's Pen

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, the formal conclusion of the Christmas season. Today we enter into the story of Jesus' Baptism, and we are reminded too, of the gift of our Baptism that has made us children of God and members of the community of the Church. May we live out our gifts to build God's Kingdom in all that we do.

As we conclude the Christmas season, a special thanks to all who have been such good and faithful servants over this time.

On Christmas Eve and Day, we had a tremendous outpouring of ushers, greeters to all who came to celebrate our Christmas Liturgies with us. We didn't know what kind of crowds to expect, but all who came felt welcomed and we were still able to socially distance and keep safe. For all those who helped serve, we are so grateful.

And also, with the first big winter storm of the season, our 'Snow Crews', who appeared here over the New Year's Day weekend cleared our sidewalks and parking lot of snow and ice. Again, we are so very grateful to all who give of their time, talent and treasure in so many ways.

As we enter into this New Year of 2021, we have great hopes for an end to the pandemic, and the 're-bounding' and renewal of our Church community. To all those who have been so faithfully attending each weekend, and to those who watch us 'virtually' each weekend. we thank you for your faithfulness and generosity maintaining the support of our community.

We're still in a time of struggle and we lift up all those members of our community whose lives have battled the COVID virus, and remember those who have lost loved ones and friends in this battle. We continue to lift everyone up for God's healing and strength, and help us to continue to be persevering in safety measures to keep everyone healthy.

Our school is back in session, for which we are grateful for our dedicated faculty and staff and parents.

Our RE programs and Confirmation preparation continue, mostly virtual at this time, but we are still forming our young people and their families as they prepare for Sacraments.

Thanks again for your generosity in so many ways!

May we all grow in the ways of God's Goodness and Love, as we live out our Baptismal call to live out God's Love in all that we do.

Blessings and Peace to you & your families,

Fr. Mike

New Parish Guide Book and Directory On Its Way

The printer has finalized the new St. James Guide Book and Directory and it is being mailed to all parishioners who are listed in the book. It should arrive in your mailboxes within a few weeks.

The book was sent to the printer in August and we expected to receive it in October. Unfortunately, the printer experienced printing delays due to Covid related issues.

Please note that everyone registered as parish members by July 31 are listed in the directory. If you joined St. James after July 31 or later you are not listed and will not receive the book in the mail, but may pick one up in the Parish Office.

In addition to parishioner contact information, the book includes contact information and descriptions about all ministries, and other parish information.

Someone is Watching and Wondering

As many of you know my daughter Julie is fighting COVID-19. She was hospitalized the weekend before Christmas and continues to struggle and fight for recovery from this infection. She is my second adult child to require hospitalization; my youngest son Ross was diagnosed in September and continues his recovery. As a mother, I can only say I feel helpless in caring for them, however, I have not, nor do not feel hopeless. My hope is centered around trusting that God will continue to care for not only my loved ones but all those and their families who suffer because of the pandemic.

Julie's birthday is the 18th of this month and I have spent many hours recalling her dad and I waiting through the Christmas season for her birth. We were living in Germany, without any extended family, but we were surrounded and embraced by another family (other military families and our German hosts – there was almost no base housing and most of us lived with German families in small apartments). Reflecting back on that time, I once again realize the “family” is so much more than biology. Family for me includes any person who offers unconditional love and compassion, those who allow me to be myself rather than who they want me to be. Family are those individuals who challenge me and help me grow more loving, patient, and kind. Family are people I trust who never betray that trust, who refrain from gossip and harsh comments. Family are men and women who are always there, reaching out to help, to pray, and to offer words of empathy and compassion. I can honestly say my family, defined in this manner, is very diverse. They are from different cultures and religious traditions. There are individuals who look very different from me. There are some who are older and some much younger. I must confess there are many who are wiser, more patient, and with greater humility than I possess. I am not sure how I would have gotten through the many trials and crises of my life without this family. I firmly believe their love and compassion are Christ's light shining, through them, into my life. They give me hope and strength especially at times when I feel so helpless.

There are a few things I have certainly learned from this family, especially in 2020: As long as Christ is the center of my life I have hope; I experience His love in so many ways when I open my heart; the love of family gives me encouragement and strength; I am grateful for all He provides; and I know that my sadness will always be replaced with that joy which I experience through His love and the love of family.

Thank you to all my St. James family. You are a gift and continue to lift me up. I pray for all of you and trust that Christ will continue to shine light into your lives this year, 2021.

Your sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

To donate or purchase raffle tickets, visit www.supportourseminarians.com or contact Martha Hodes at (913) 207-9893 or mmmhsos512@gmail.com.

We hope you will join us in supporting our seminarians and vocations to the priesthood.
