Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

Thinking About Becoming A Priest?

I am hosting a gathering on Thursday, April 15th with members of the Diocesan Vocation office to help young men who might be considering a call to serve God as a priest.

We will gather at 5:30pm in the church for Mass, followed by a dinner in the Parish hall.

Please contact me via email at frmike@stjames-liberty.org to let me know your interest or if you have names, questions, or would like to know more details .

I Hope all of our young people consider God's' call to serve as a priest or religious in the Diocese and the larger Church,

Peace, Fr. Mike

The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph is committed to combatting sexual abuse in the Church. If you are a victim of sexual abuse, or if you observe or suspect sexual abuse:

1. Call the Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.392.3738 (if the victim is currently under the age of 18), and
 2. Contact your local law enforcement agency or call 911, and
 3. After reporting to these civil and law enforcement authorities, report suspected sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult to the Diocesan Ombudsman, Joe Crayon, at 816.812.2500 or crayon@ombudsmankcsj.org, if the abuse involves a priest, deacon, employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph.
- The Diocese has a sincere commitment to providing care and healing resources to victims of sexual abuse and their families. Please contact the Victim Advocate at 816.392.0011 victimadvocate@diocesekcsj.org for more information.

From the Pastor's Pen

The Lord is Risen, Alleluia! Alleluia

We gather to celebrate the core belief – that Jesus rose from the dead. As we reflect on this message of New Life, we pray that we can carry this message of Hope, Life and the Peace that only God can bring into our daily lives and into our world.

May you and your families know the Peace of this Easter season that we celebrate for 50 Days, until the Feast of Pentecost, when we are sent the power of God's Spirit.

We reflect on this message because it's very easy to wonder where God is, but the message of Easter is that God was always in Jesus, and is always with us. Today we celebrate the promise of God's Love.

We welcome our new Catholics, our 'neophytes', who were brought into the fullness of the Catholic faithful on Palm Sunday, and our newly baptized and confirmed who were brought in at the Easter Vigil. They are sources of New Life for us.

Over the next few weekends, our young children and their families will receive the gift of the Eucharist – their First Holy Communion. The celebrations will look different here at St. James, since they will not be celebrated at the regular weekend Masses, but we will have special celebrations with their families, so that all their family and friends can celebrate together. We will welcome them as they return to the weekend Liturgies to receive the Eucharist with all our community. Keep them and their families in your prayers.

Once again, we pray that we can continue to be diligent in practicing social distancing and masks at Mass. All of us want to be free of masks as soon as possible, but God has kept our community healthy and safe, so as we welcome more back to Church each weekend, we want it to be a safe & healthy environment.

On behalf of Fr. Michael and all our parish staff, may the peace of the Easter message of New Life be with you, your families and all our households.

A joyous Easter to all.

Peace, Fr. Mike

Someone is Watching and Wondering

Perhaps last week my message felt dark. My hope was that you might experience the last supper and passion liturgies as the disciples, without already experiencing the resurrection. I also hoped you might walk through your personal experiences of the past year, sharing as you walked with Jesus His final days. Today, however, we experience the fullness of the resurrection, leading to the light of hope and joy filled resurrection from our personal darkness and despair. Today, we rejoice and once again sing "alleluias." Joan Chittister in The Search of Belief writes: "The Spirit of God is a wild thing, breathing where it will, moving as it pleases, settling on [both] women and men." Sr. Joan continues with her creed: "I believe in one God who made us all and whose divinity infuses all of life with the sacred. . . expressed in every culture, and found in all the wisdoms [truths] of the world. I believe that Jesus Christ, the unique son of God, is the face of God on earth in whom we see best the divine justice, divine mercy, and divine compassion . . . I believe in the Christ who is One in being with the Creator and who shows us the presence of God in everything that is and [who] calls out the sacred in ourselves. I believe in Jesus, the Christ, who leads us to the fullness of human stature. . . Through Christ we become new people, called beyond the consequences of our brokenness and lifted to the fullness of life. . . He rose again in those He left behind. . .to live in hearts that will not succumb to the enemies of life. He changed all of life. . .I believe in the Holy Spirit, the breath of God on earth, who keeps the Christ vision present to souls yet in darkness, gives life even to hearts now blind, infuses energy into spirits yet weary, isolated, searching and confused. The Spirit has spoken to the human heart. . .gives meaning to the Word. . .I believe in One holy and universal church bound together by the holiness of creation and the holiness of hearts forever true. I acknowledge the need to be freed from the compulsions of my disordered life and my need for forgiveness in face of frailty. I look for eternal life in ways I cannot dream and trust that creation goes on creating in this world and in us forever. Amen" Her words (although I omitted many) have become a refreshing voice, this past year, for my faith which I felt diminished and my life which I felt disordered. Today, this Easter 2021, I feel hope in the resurrection, a new love for God, and courage to face each new day, acknowledging my blessings and praying for the strength to give myself in trust and loving service God and to His children, in whatever way God leads me. My continued prayers seek healing for our brokenness this Blessed Easter.

Your sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

For Your Awesome Support Of Our
Fish Fries This Year

Our annual Fish Fries before COVID, held in the gym, were always well attended. So, this year we were determined to continue our annual tradition – Curbside Style – all the while wondering how well a curbside dinner with a limited menu would be received.

Well, you outdid yourselves. You turned out in record numbers as we served an all time record-breaking 927 dinners on March 12.

We look forward to serving you again next year

A Special Promise of Mercy

Our Lord's promise to grant complete forgiveness of sins and punishment on the Feast of Mercy is recorded three times in the Diary of St. Faustina:

I want to grant a complete pardon to the souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My mercy (Diary 1109).

Whoever approaches the Fountain of Life on this day will be granted complete forgiveness of sins and punishment (Diary 300).

The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion will obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment (Diary 699).

It's allowed for one to go to confession up to 20 days before or after Divine Mercy Sunday

Congratulations To Our Youth

Confirmed by Bishop Johnston on March 18

*Just a Few of The Young Men & Women
Who Were Confirmed*

On Thursday, March 18th, 64 teens from St. James and 2 from St. Therese received the Sacrament of Confirmation with Bishop Johnston presiding. Five more of our students will receive the Sacrament at a later date. The parish community of St. James congratulates these young adults and invites them into fellowship with the Church.

In this season of new life, we recognize the many of blessings upon us. One of those blessings appeared as our Confirmation Mass was ending, when Bishop Johnston offered a special gift to each of our newly confirmed young adults. Each student received a hand-made rosary blessed by the Bishop that contained a crucifix blessed by the Pope! Bishop Johnston reminded us all that the rosary is more than a rear-view mirror decoration, and invited us into meaningful prayer.

Congratulations to our newly confirmed!

Let us join them in prayer as we all strive to deepen our relationship with Jesus Christ.

Parish Religious Education

First Communion

We invite our parish to pray for the 77 students preparing to receive their First Communion this Easter season. In receiving the Sacrament of First Holy Eucharist, may they experience Jesus like never before!

Sacrament Preparation

Registration for next year's Sacrament Prep classes (open to children second grade and older) will begin in August. Information will be posted on our website, Facebook and in the bulletin as we near registration dates.

Our Mortgage on the Church Building

Current balance: $3,222,332

Interest rate: 2.75%

This is OUTSTANDING! We can all be SO proud. We are taking care of our regular home expenses and paying our mortgage down. So many of you have either paid in advance on your pledge where possible, been faithful to your pledge every month, and/or even made a strong commitment to going the extra mile to pay down our mortgage.

We are very grateful for your remarkable support. However you have made giving work for your situation, YOU HAVE CONTRIBUTED!

This is just spectacular, St. James. Well done! I would love to see our mortgage get below $3.0 mil before Fiscal Year End (June 30, 2021), that is three months.

We are on the right track—keep it going!

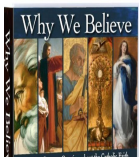

As always, if you have any questions and/or concerns about any financial numbers – please feel free to contact me.

Blessings, Katie Klassen

Saturday Morning Faith Sharing Classes Resume - April 10

The Saturday Morning Faith Sharing classes, led by Deacon Chuck, will resume meeting in-person on Saturday, April 10 at 10:00am in the Parish Hall.

Classes will begin with a new program "Why We Believe: Answering Common Questions about the Catholic Faith" by Dr. Brant Pitre. In this program Dr. Pitre takes up the most commonly asked questions about the Catholic faith and provides clear and compelling biblical answers.

This 8-week series answers the following questions:

1. Does God Exist?
2. Is Jesus God?
3. Peter and the Papacy
4. How we got the Bible
5. Is The Eucharist Jesus' Real Presence?
6. Why Confess to a Priest?
7. Do Catholics Worship Mary?
8. Purgatory and Prayers for the Dead?

Please join us and observe masks and social distancing guidelines.

The Emmaus Journey in Contemporary Scenes

- A video on-demand series for Easter
- New videos posted Tuesdays
April 6 - May 18

April 6 - May 18, 2021

On the Sunday after Jesus' death, two disciples left Jerusalem despondent. On the road to Emmaus, they encountered a stranger who asks them for the news. They tell him about the crucifixion of the man they had hoped would be the Messiah. The stranger reviewed for them the scriptures, from Moses and through all the prophets, that foretold the Messiah and his suffering.

As the stranger opened the scriptures to them, the disciples said, "our hearts were burning within us."

Later as they broke bread at the end of the day, the disciples recognized the stranger as the Resurrected Jesus, and he vanished. Jesus had helped them "put two and two together" and see reality as it is.

The disciples returned to Jerusalem where their testimony strengthened the community.

People continue to have similar experiences of finding Jesus in surprising situations and unexpected circumstances — even today.

In this video series, Fr. Ron Will, CPPS, and guests will explore times that Jesus has made surprise appearances in their lives. They will recall encounters during service, pieces of art, current events and other ways and times, Jesus made himself known in their lives.

New videos will be posted on the Renewal Center website every Tuesday morning from April 6 till May 18 (from Easter till Pentecost).

Please do not remove the reflective tape hanging on signs, trees and bushes. It is a way to deter geese on the property.

As we celebrate the Resurrection of Our Lord, Catholic Charities KCSJ would like to take this opportunity to wish you all the grace and blessings of the season.

Please pray for all those who we serve in our outreach to the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph. Spreading the love of Jesus Christ while meeting the needs of those less fortunate is the foundation of our efforts. This outreach continues with the opening of our first food pantry in the southern region.

To help become a part of the solution in our area to reduce hunger, poverty, homelessness, and under unemployment, contact Linda Hopkins, Volunteer Coordinator at lhopkins@ccharties.com or 816-659-8205 to see how you can get involved.
