From the Pastor's Pen

As we move into the month of May we are grateful for the beautiful weather and this time of year. Hopefully this May, with its usual celebrations of weddings and graduations and other festivities, there will be a more events of celebration, since this at time last year, we were not able to celebrate many events.

A special THANK YOU for your generosity and support as I celebrated my 40th Anniversary of Priesthood last weekend. As I said, it's certainly a blessing to serve here at St. James, and I know that God continues to have great things for our community. May we continue to work together and to be good and faithful stewards of all God's gifts as we continue to bring forth the power of God's Love within this parish community.

This weekend, we are supporting our youth who are planning to attend the Steubenville Youth Conference in Springfield, MO., in July. This is a great event for our young people. Last year, this event was cancelled, so we plan on sending twelve teens. Your support of them and their families is a tremendous blessing.

We are grateful to Lori Tajchman and her wonderful staff of volunteers who help coordinate these efforts for our young people. Lori has done a wonderful job in her position as Director of Religious Education and the celebrations of First Communions, as well as the large Confirmation class in March. Thanks much, Lori!

The weekend of May 15/16 is our annual collection for 'Tomorrow's Priests'. This collection goes to support the education of seminarians in their preparation for Ordination to the Priesthood for our Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph. We won't have a 'special collection', but a separate basket will be in the Gathering Space for your donations.

A special word of congratulations and prayers to all who are celebrating milestones this month – graduations from Grade School, High School and Colleges. Please know that we are proud of you and that our thoughts and prayers will be with you as you journey through this transition.

May all our Mothers, both living and deceased, be remembered next weekend, and may we continue to know the goodness of God's Love as we continue to celebrate this Easter season preparing for the great feast of Pentecost.

Peace, Fr. Mike

May Crowning ~ May 5 at 6:30pm

Our Religious Education year is coming to an end. We will celebrate with Mass and May Crowning on Wednesday, May 5th at 6:30pm, and invite all Religious Education families to attend.

May Crowning is a traditional Roman Catholic ritual held in May, a month when we celebrate Mary. The statue of the Blessed Virgin is crowned with a crown of flowers honoring Mary, Mother of Jesus, as the Queen of Heaven and Mother of God. What a great way to end our RE year and experience a Catholic tradition still new to many families!

Because We Care

From time to time we see people in need, whether it's a need for food, gas, diapers or rent money.

If you see someone in need here on our St. James campus on the weekend, encourage them to come to the Parish Office on Monday.

We here at St. James have a process to provide for some of these needs. This process begins when the person(s) in need come in to talk with one of our church staff.

Because we work very closely with LOVE INC, both financially and with volunteers, we are able to connect people in need with the many resources available through this ministry - much more than we as individuals could provide. "A hand up rather than just a hand out."

Love INC is a partnership of Christian churches that have joined together to provide volunteer and financial support for the operation of Love INC, so that together we can help the poor in coordinated, tangible ways that demonstrate God's love.

Last year Love INC of Clay County provided assistance to 7,325 individuals and 449 residents were given rent or utility assistance.

Eucharist Adoration

Exposition of the Consecrated Host (Jesus) every Thursday in the Church from 8:30 am and ending with a closing prayer service at 9:00 p.m.

Everyone is welcome to come for Eucharistic Adoration and be with Jesus for awhile. This is a great way for families to draw closer to Jesus, and increase the faith of all ages

Someone is Watching and Wondering

In re-reading the scriptures of Jesus' encounters with the disciples after the resurrection, I am struck by His use of the phrase "Peace be with you." This rather unique greeting brought to my mind the various ways human beings greet one another. In China and Japan, for example, people bow to one another. In parts of Europe it is common to hug or kiss. In Southern Germany and Austria, one hears Grüß Gott as people nod to one another. This phrase translates to [may] God bless [you]. In India, and parts of Southeast Asia people put their hands together (palm to palm) and bow as they say, Namaste, which translates literally "I bow to you." This is a respectful greeting which honors the person or group. In the United States, before COVID, we would shake hands and say "Hello, Welcome to ___," or "Nice to meet you." With relatives or very close friends perhaps our greeting is accompanied with an embrace, and of course during the Mass we offer "Peace be with you" to one another. Whatever the culture or place, our greetings should be not only an introduction but also a sign of hospitality and welcome.

As I thought about the connection between a greeting and hospitality I kept returning to Grüß Gott and Namaste. In both phrases we acknowledge our common humanity and offer God's blessing(s) to the other - so much more than simple hello, they embrace a mutual sharing of God's love and mercy, a longing for the other individual to know the peace and joy which comes in receiving God's presence. Furthermore, the simple gesture of bowing or nodding signifies that I honor that spiritual place in you; a part of creation and the universe. I honor that place in you of love, light, truth and peace. I honor that place within where if you are in that place and I am in that place in me, we are bound as one. We are God's children, loved and beloved in spite of our sinfulness, any disagreements, or selfish desires. I think this is true hospitality - accepting the other as unique, loved, cherished, and struggling through life's challenges. I cannot truly accept you or offer true hospitality as Jesus did, while at the same time trying to force you into my self-centered image of what you should be.

Sr. John Chittister explains Benedictine hospitality as more than an open door; "it is acknowledgment of the gifts the stranger brings, 'by a bow [or nod] of the head. . . Christ is to be adored and welcomed in them'. . . the stranger is shown both presence and service. . . it isn't so much what we do for those curious others. . . it is the why we do it' (The Rule of Benedict: A Spirituality for the 21st Century). Our greetings and offer of hospitality should involve a change of attitudes and perspectives more than simply a courtesy or handout. I continue to ask myself, "What does my greeting offer?"

Your sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

Faith in Action - Community

Knights are called on to serve others. Our first principle is charity, at home to our families and in our communities. When the Knights of Columbus come together, they accomplish great things.

Last weekend at the Knights State Council Convention in Jefferson City, our St. James Knights of Columbus was awarded this top award among 306 Councils in Missouri.

Congratulations

Congratulations to the following St. Pius X students and St. James alumni/parishioners who were inducted into the National Honor Society. Selection for this honor is based on outstanding scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

Why May Was Designated As The Month of Mary

A number of traditions link the month of May to Mary. Alfonso (a Spanish king) in the 13th century wrote in his Cantigas de Santa Maria about the special honoring of Mary during specific dates in May. Eventually, the entire month was filled with special observances and devotions to Mary.

The origin of the conventional May devotion is still relatively unknown. Herbert Thurston identifies the seventeenth century as the earliest instance of the adoption of the custom of consecrating the month of May to the Blessed Virgin by special observances. It is certain that this form of Marian devotion began in Italy. Around 1739, witnesses speak of a particular form of Marian devotion in May in Grezzano near Verona. In 1747 the Archbishop of Genoa recommended the May devotion as a devotion for the home. Specific prayers for them were promulgated in Rome in 1838.

According to Frederick Holweck, the May devotion in its present form originated at Rome where Father Latomia of the Roman College of the Society of Jesus, to counteract infidelity and immorality among the students, made a vow at the end of the eighteenth century to devote the month of May to Mary. From Rome the practice spread to the other Jesuit colleges and thence to nearly every Catholic church of the Latin rite.

In Rome by 1813, May devotions were held in as many as twenty churches. From Italy, May devotions soon spread to France. In Belgium, the May devotions, at least as a private devotion, were already known by 1803. The tradition of honoring Mary in a month-long May devotion spread eventually around the Roman Catholic world in the 19th century together with a month-long devotion to Jesus in June and the Rosary in October.

In his 1965 encyclical, Mense Maio, Pope Paul VI identified the month of May as an opportune time to incorporate special prayers for peace into traditional May devotions. Pope Pius XII, recognizing traditional precedents, proclaimed the "Queenship of Mary" through his encyclical, Ad Caeli Reginam.

Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee.

Feast Day of Saints Philip and James May 3

Philip is mentioned as one of the Apostles in Matthew, Mark, Luke, and in Acts. Aside from the lists, he is mentioned only in the Gospel of John. He was called by Jesus Himself and was present at the miracle of the loaves and fishes. According to tradition he preached in Greece and was crucified upside down at Hierapolis under Emperor Domitian.

James, Son of Alphaeus. Nothing is known about him other than his name and that Jesus chose him to be one of the 12 apostles. He is also known as James the Lesser to avoid confusing him with James the son of Zebedee, also an apostle and known as James the Greater.

Our Lady, Health of the Sick,
I look to you for the comfort of a mother's love,
I pray to you on behalf of those who are suffering
and for my own healing needs.
Mary, your love strengthens me
and brings me peace.

Our Lady, Health of the Sick, embrace all who are emotionally and physically ill that they may return to good health under your tender care.

And please intercede for my very special needs. (mention your needs here).

Mary, your love strengthens me
and brings me peace.

Our Lady, Health of the Sick, pray for us.

Amen.

ALLELUIA. Students from our Religious Education program took part in an at-home decorating of the "Alleluia" on Mardi Gras, just before they put the "Alleluia" away for the season of Lent. Their beautifully decorated works of art will be included in the next weeks of Easter season, as we continue celebrating the Resurrection of our Lord and Savior.
