Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

The 2022 Annual Catholic Appeal kicks off this weekend. Letters have been mailed to all parishioners explaining how to make your donation.

Our diocese has a page on their website where you can view and listen to a message from Bishop Johnston about how your donation can make a difference.

To visit the webpage go to:

<https://kcsj catholic.org/office/stewardship-and-development/annual-catholic-appeal/>

Donations can also be made on line from this website. Your gift helps support more than 30 ministries along with administrative support for both parishes and the Diocese.

From the Pastor's Pen

As we journey through the month of October, we support all the 'Respect Life' opportunities. We especially are grateful for the Knights of Columbus and their efforts in their tootsie roll drive that goes to benefit the special needs efforts of the Knights. Thanks in advance for your donation!

Tomorrow, October 18, we begin our second series of "Grief Support", coordinated by Juanita Thornton. This is a great group of folks who have lost loved ones, and they are a support system for one another. We will be meeting from 4-5:30pm in the Parish Hall (lower level of the church), and all are welcome. More details are in the bulletin. This series will run for the next several weeks. It's a great opportunity for those families going through struggles with losing loved ones.

This time of year is the Diocesan Annual Appeal – Bishop Johnston's personal appeal to all of us to support the work of the Diocese. Our Diocese does so much to support our parishes, to feed the hungry and help those in need. St. James has been very supportive in past years, and we are counting on that support this year also. You should receive a letter and a giving envelope from the Diocese. If not, we have extra ones in the office and will make them available in church.

Last week's bulletin had a recap of our financial situation. We can see how well we did last year (even in the midst of the pandemic), and our church debt is being reduced each month, so that's a great sign. It's under $2.7 million, which is a huge accomplishment.

This weekend, we have a beautiful insert in the bulletin – our 'Annual Report'. It's a summary of how we are doing stewardship-wise. We can see the tremendous works that have been accomplished in caring for those in need, serving the poor, and community building. This is what stewardship is all about – sharing your time, talent and treasure for the good of the parish community.

We are grateful to all who are so faithful! To all the folks/families who have returned to Mass each weekend, we thank you! To those who are still hesitant, we understand your concern. We still have areas of the church that are socially distant and masks are worn, so please consider returning. To those who have not started back since the pandemic, we invite you to return. We realize coming to Mass each weekend is a commitment, and if we get out of that habit, it's hard to begin again. We miss you & invite you and your family to start coming back. The more we start making it a habit, the more we can be faithful to coming each week. I think you and your family will see the benefit!!

Blessings to all – and Go CHIEFS!

Peace, Fr. Mike

Someone is Watching and Wondering

Several weeks ago I asked you to think about your image of God. Any new ideas? There are different names and images of God found in Holy Scripture and certainly artists have provided many beautiful and powerful images. Stories, movies, and music have furthered our imagination with portrayals of God. Stay with me a few minutes as I offer two more:

“I preferred her to scepter and throne. And deemed riches nothing in comparison with her, nor did I liken any priceless gem to her; because all gold, in view of her, is a little sand, and before her, silver is to be accounted mire. . . I chose to have her rather than the light, because the splendor of her never yields to sleep, yet all good things came to me in her company.”

“All day long She has been arranging our welcome: Scouring down the house, sweeping under beds, pulling out the old crocheted counterpane, shining glasses and tableware, dusting sideboards and picture frames. Now she sits in a deep chair till we come crunching under the beeches to the door.”

The first we heard proclaimed last Sunday from the Book of Wisdom, the second I found in one of the novels from my library. The words are credited to an Irish priest, Father Paddy Daly. Both stretch our imagination with images of God and may seem quite distinct from the image Michelangelo painted in the Sistine Chapel. Yet they also evoke strength and comfort, God whose desire is always to lovingly provide for His/Her creatures. Let me remind you of one more quote: “God created man [and woman] in his image; in the divine image he created. . . Male and female” (Genesis 1:17). We are all, every human created in the “divine image” of God.

Reflecting on the above quotes and images, I am reminded the many ways God graces my life and challenges me to lovingly and wisely care for creation so full of beauty, majesty, and gifts to be cherished. God is always present, overwhelming our senses with light, sound, scent, taste, and touch. God fills our minds with new ideas, challenging each of us to become co-creators in the continuing evolution of our universe. God gives us wisdom to help us make decisions and moral choices, whether we are at home, work, or at worship. God provides opportunities for establishing relationships and building bridges between people. God refreshes the earth with rain, sends forth plants for beauty and sustenance, welcomes us each day with the rising of the sun, and sends us to sleep with the moon and the stars to guide our prayer and assure us of the eternal presence.

The image above of God as a mother or father, preparing for my visit reminds me of my maternal grandmother. Before each of our visits she prepared: placing fresh linens on the beds, preparing special meals (I especially remember the turkey and pies she baked), dusting, scrubbing, and sweeping, and always having fresh flowers, which she had carefully selected from her gardens and arranged in special vases throughout the house. I believe, with my entire being, that God prepared for me, like my grandmother and desires that I welcome and receive his/her love. I think all God asks in return is that I use my gifts to lovingly and unselfishly care for others and for creation. What is your personal image of God?

Your Sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

Has someone you love passed away and are you dealing with the grief and sorrow?

Have you experienced another loss in your life that causes you pain, like the loss of a job?

Would you like to join with others who are experiencing the same issues for support and companionship in the journey?

Studies have shown that being a part of a support group helps ease the pain and facilitates healing.

We are starting another Grief Support group here at St James for anyone who is facing loss and grief.

Call the parish office, 816-781-4343, ext. 200 or Juanita Thornton at 816-883-8282 for details, or join us on the following Mondays:

October 18, 25, November 1, 8, 15, and 29 from 4:00pm to 5:30pm in the Parish Hall.

As always, we will honor all Covid restrictions.

The Advent Giving Tree is coming!!!

We are happy to announce we will be kicking off the Advent Giving Tree, a well-loved St. James Parish ministry, the last weekend in October.

Through this ministry, our parish has provided incredible support over the years to various charitable organizations, including our own parish, to help families and individuals in need. Those needs are never more evident than during the holiday season.

Last year, due to the pandemic, you enthusiastically embraced a new approach to donating to the Advent Giving Tree. Through your generosity, we were able to provide much needed help to at least 69 families and more than 400 individuals, including children, expectant mothers, nursing home residents, and others. This year we will take the same approach – using your cash donations to purchase Hope program gift cards, which will then be donated to nine charitable organizations within the metro area.

Keep watching the bulletin for more information, including details on how to donate, and highlights on each of the nine organizations we support. We are blessed with a very caring and generous parish, and with your support, we will continue to provide tremendous help - and hope - to those in need.

October Is Respect Life Month

Pope St. John Paul II wrote that the Gospel of life is at the heart of Jesus' saving message to the world. In taking on human flesh, dwelling among us, and sacrificing his very life for our redemption, Christ reveals the profound dignity of every human person. This God-given dignity does not change with our stage of life, abilities, level of independence, or any other varying circumstance.

Rather, it is rooted in the permanent fact that each of us is made in the image and likeness of God, created to share in the very life of God himself. The human person is a "manifestation of God in the world, a sign of his presence, a trace of his glory". And we must reflect this truth in how we act and how we treat one another.

The truth of the Gospel of life is at the foundation of who we are as followers of Christ. In his earthly life, Jesus provided the perfect model for how we are to love our neighbor and live out the Gospel call: "Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me". Jesus calls each of us to "care for the other as a person for whom God has made us responsible".

In his encyclical on the Gospel of life, Pope St. John Paul II recognizes the full range of threats against human life, from poverty and malnutrition to murder and war. He places particular emphasis, however, on threats to life at its beginning and end – precisely when it is most in need of protection. In modern times, children in their mothers' wombs and those approaching the end of their lives are certainly among the "least of these" in our world's estimation. Practices such as abortion and assisted suicide tragically reject the truth that human life is always to be cherished and defended with loving concern.

Let us reflect on how we personally live out the Gospel:

Do I talk about and act towards others as I would talk about and treat Jesus himself?

Do I inform myself of the Church's teachings and engage in the civic arena as first a follower of Christ?

Do I support and advocate for laws and policies that protect and defend human life?

Do I help pregnant and parenting mothers in need?

Am I ready to support a loved one nearing death?

2021 Annual Report

ST. JAMES CATHOLIC COMMUNITY
2021 ANNUAL REPORT

MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN OUR PARISH AND OUR COMMUNITY

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

We are pleased to provide you with our first annual stewardship report for Saint James Catholic Church. This annual report includes information not only about our parish revenue and expenses, but also about how your stewardship extends both within and beyond the walls of our parish.

As your pastor, I am continually amazed by the faith and dedication I witness here at St. James. We are so blessed to have so many volunteers ministering to the needs of our both our St. James Parish and community. One never knows the effect that our volunteer efforts have on people. We are so happy to present the story of Lucas Carey and the small part that our jail ministry had on his life.

I am ever grateful to all of our parishioners for the dedication you show to your parish. You are giving, you are worshipping, you are serving, you are growing your faith, and most importantly, you are being the Church!

Fr. Mike

From Atheism to Catholicism
The Lucas Carey Story

"I am your God. You have denied me your whole life and you will know my name."

As a young kid, growing up with his parents in a middle class family in the mid-west, Lucas Carey was not unlike others of his age in a similar circumstance. He didn't think too far into the future, went to school, perhaps occasionally thought a little about what he wanted to do when he grew up. But never did he ever dream where his life's journey would take him.

He was born and brought up in Michigan, raised in a protestant home, attended Sunday School and church. In his early teens he became distracted by drugs and drinking, his mind was anywhere but God's word. To put it in his words, "God didn't exist for me." He stopped believing and considered himself an atheist.

In his freshman year of high school, his family moved to Liberty and he attended Liberty High School. After that first year, however, troublesome problems were noticed at school, so serious that he was suspended from school and received a six month juvenile probation from the court.

For the next couple of years, he seemed to have straightened out his life. He attended and graduated from St. Pius X High School where he participated in football and wrestling. From there he attended the University of Missouri at Columbia for one semester but then moved back home and attended Maple Woods.

Then a friend who was going to California to attend college asked Lucas to come along and be his roommate. The thought of living in California attracted him and that was all it took to join his friend heading west. He found work at an avocado farm but after a few months he parted ways with his friend and his job.

It was easy for Lucas to make new friends. But new friends aren't always "good" friends and soon Lucas got in with the wrong crowd doing the wrong things - drinking and drugging! As an avowed atheist, the thought of there being a God hadn't crossed his mind in many years so for him there was no "guilt" in the lifestyle he was living. His new lifestyle required money and he found a job at a plant nursery. In a way, this job was the beginning (but not the end) of Lucas' conversion to Christianity. His new employer was a Christian man who talked openly about God. This man's ways began to have an influence on Lucas and he started thinking about God and Jesus and began to wonder what if Jesus was real and really died on the cross.

Although these positive thoughts were baby steps towards conversion, Lucas still kept his relationship with his unsavory friends. However, one night, he couldn't find the drugs he craved; though, for a good reason, because the next day something amazing happened. He was listening to a song praising God. Then, as Lucas says in his own words, "I had a vision. God came to me. Light came down from a cloud and enveloped me. I'd heard beats; I felt drawn out of my body. I heard a thundering voice; I actually heard a real voice and God said 'I Am your God, You have denied me your whole life and you will know my name.'" Lucas remembers that after the vision he argued with God saying "I didn't always deny you." When he told his friends about this vision, they mocked him and didn't believe him.

Inserted in this weekend's bulletin is our first Annual Report. This annual report provides you information about our parish revenue and expenses and how your stewardship extends both within and beyond the walls of our parish.

Extra copies of this report are available in the Parish Office.

St. Luke Feast Day October 18

Luke, the writer of the Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles, has been identified with St. Paul's "Luke, the beloved physician". We know few other facts about Luke's life from Scripture and from early Church historians.

It is believed that Luke was born a Greek and a Gentile. According to the early Church historian Eusebius Luke was born at Antioch in Syria.

The Acts of the Apostles follows the trail of Luke's Christian ministry. We know nothing about his conversion but looking at the language of Acts we can see where he joined Saint Paul.

Luke is the loyal comrade who stays with Paul when he is imprisoned in Rome about the year 61: After everyone else deserts Paul in his final imprisonment and sufferings, it is Luke who remains with Paul to the end: "Only Luke is with me"

Luke's inspiration and information for his Gospel and Acts came from his close association with Paul and his companions. His unique perspective on Jesus can be seen in the six miracles and eighteen parables not found in the other gospels. Throughout Luke's gospel, Jesus takes the side of the sinner who wants to return to God's mercy.

Reading Luke's gospel gives a good idea of his character as one who loved the poor, who wanted the door to God's kingdom opened to all, who respected women, and who saw hope in God's mercy for everyone.

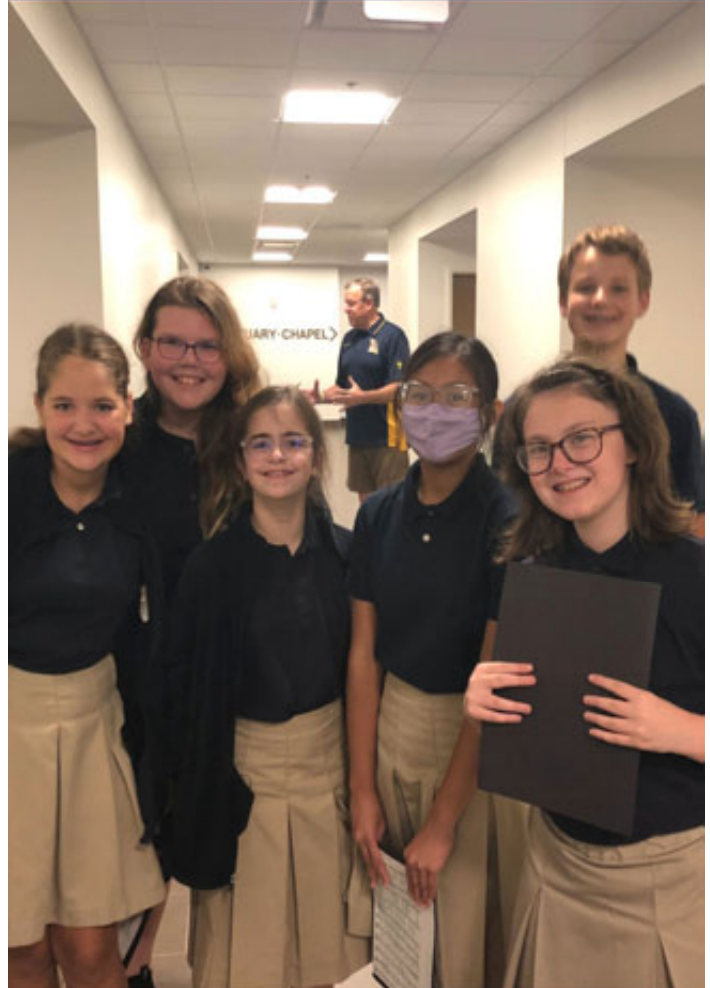

The reports of Luke's life after Paul's death are conflicting. Some early writers claim he was martyred, others say he lived a long life. Some say that he preached in Greece, others in Gaul. The earliest tradition we have says that he died at 84 Boeotia after settling in Greece to write his Gospel.

Birthdays this week: Today we celebrate all that you with God's help, have accomplished.
