From the Pastor's Pen

When something good happens to us or to our families, it is our natural inclination to tell others about our good fortune. If that is true about the events of our daily lives, then it is all the more true about our faith. We have received a treasure: the invitation to be followers of the Lord Jesus Christ and our Church. In our generosity and concern, we want others to receive that same gift. Evangelization, proclaiming the good news, is the work of the Church, of all the People of God.

We are so fortunate to live in a county that protects religious freedom, a country where we have the financial means – for most people at least – to support the ministries of the Church in our parishes and to reach out in charity to places in need. Each year in September we celebrate World Mission Sunday. We are asked to give special attention to the work of the missions, giving support by our prayer and our financial assistance. It is a global collection: in every country where there is a diocese and Catholic parishes a collection is taken up for this cause. The monies collected are given especially to dioceses and parishes where there is poverty, violence, and oppression. Not only do catechetical programs receive assistance, but also the monies assist in building infrastructure: chapels, schools, orphanages, clinics, and dispensaries.

World Mission Sunday is a great testimony to our solidarity as the People of God. We are brothers and sisters in the faith. We stand together: praying together the same liturgies, passing on the same traditions, giving assistance and encouragement to each other. The theme for this year's celebration comes from the Book of Acts, 4,20: "We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard." Christians of the early Church loved their faith so much that they wanted to share it with all who would listen. We hope that our faith is just as strong. We possess the good news, salvation in the Lord Jesus Christ. Not only do we shout out the good news ourselves, but we help others to proclaim the gospel. That's the work of the missions. With conviction, we speak the good news by our words and example, but we also enable our sisters and brothers in faith to join us in this work of evangelization. There is an envelope in our packet for this purpose. Please be generous.

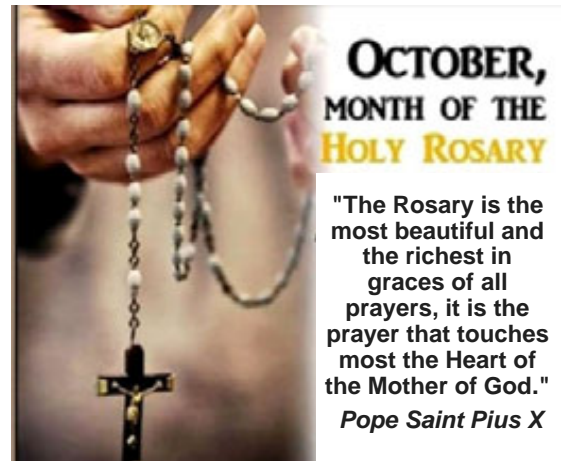

My prayers are with you each day.

Fr. Michael

To equip the holy ones for the work of ministry, for building up the Body of Christ.

The 2022 Annual Catholic Appeal began last weekend. Letters have been mailed to all parishioners explaining how to make your donation.

Our diocese has a page on their website where you can view and listen to a message from Bishop Johnston about how your donation can make a difference.

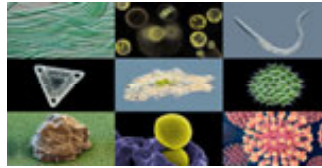

To visit the webpage go to:

<https://kcsjatholic.org/office/stewardship-and-development/annual-catholic-appeal/>

Donations can also be made on line on this website.

Your gift helps support more than 30 ministries along with administrative support for both parishes and the Diocese.

Someone is Watching and Wondering

For nearly two years now, most of you have read, heard about, or experienced microorganisms, specifically the Sars Covid 19 virus in a manner most of us had not previously imagined. Perhaps I am the odd one, however, who comes to this problem with a different mindset.

As many of you know, I studied, taught, and researched microorganisms for more than thirty years and have been fascinated with all things related to science since I was in elementary school (I won't reveal how many years that has been except in private dialogue). In those years of study/research I discovered not only the immense diversity of microbes but also how beneficial these tiny life-forms are to our daily living. Without microbes nature's amazing recycling would not exist. Without microbes many foods/beverages we enjoy would not be available. Without beneficial microbes our health and physiological processes would be in danger. Without microorganisms the soil would be depleted of nitrogen necessary for plant growth and our oceans could not sustain life. In fact, microbes were present long before other organisms existed on earth. In fact, science teaches that many of these ancient microbes, that provided the environment necessary for the evolution of higher life forms, still exist today. My favorite examples are the microorganisms found in the thermal features of Yellowstone National Park. I do not minimize the threat pathogenic microorganisms are in this world, but I continue to marvel at our dependence on beneficial microbes. Yet most of us are left to understanding and dealing with those microbes which cause disease.

Recently I read an article about a newer vaccine, "Mosquirix." No this is not a new vaccine to protect against COVID-19, rather it is the first vaccine to prevent disease due to parasites, specifically to protect humans against malaria. Although malaria is not prevalent in the United States, it kills many people, especially children, in tropical countries such as found in sub-Saharan Africa. To date more than 800,000 children, in three African countries have received the vaccine. It has been shown safe and effective in preventing disease, for those people who receive 4 doses of the vaccine. FYI this vaccine is 40% effective in preventing severe disease and death. People are eager to receive Mosquirix, especially those living in rural areas, at the greatest risk of suffering from malaria. Yet in our country, many people (without medical reasons) refuse to be vaccinated against COVID-19 with vaccines that approach greater than 90 efficacy with extremely low risk to the recipient. I must admit, such resistance is confusing to me, while I try not to judge those making this decision.

As I continue to study microbes, I also continue to be amazed at God's creation. There is so much we do not understand; so much we take for granted; so much we fail to treasure; so much we cannot see; so much yet to be discovered. As the fields of science, technology, and medicine continue to grow, my prayer is that those not working in these fields, will lose the fear and distrust which blocks advances that can protect and preserve what God's has provided. We each are given different abilities. God asks us to use those abilities for the common good, and graces us with the strength to continue even when we are tired. Please share your gifts of love.

Your Sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

Has someone you love passed away and are you dealing with the grief and sorrow?

Have you experienced another loss in your life that causes you pain, like the loss of a job?

Would you like to join with others who are experiencing the same issues for support and companionship in the journey?

Studies have shown that being a part of a support group helps ease the pain and facilitates healing.

We have a Grief Support group here at St James for anyone who is facing loss and grief.

Call the parish office, 816-781-4343, ext. 200 or Juanita Thornton at 816-883-8282 for details,

The Advent Giving Tree Kicks Off Next Sunday, October 31

Through the Advent Giving Tree ministry, St. James Parish has provided incredible support to various charitable organizations, including our own parish, to help families and individuals in need.

Last year, due to the pandemic, you enthusiastically embraced a new approach to donating to the Advent Giving Tree. Through your generosity, we were able to provide much needed help to at least 69 families and more than 400 individuals, including children, expectant mothers, nursing home residents, and others. This year we will take the same approach – using your cash donations to purchase Hope program gift cards, which will then be donated to nine charitable organizations within the metro area.

We will collect donations at all Masses through November 28. You can also drop off or mail donations to the Parish office.

Over the coming weeks, the bulletin will highlight each of the nine organizations we support, and how our donations are used. We are blessed with a very caring and generous parish, and with your support, we will continue to provide tremendous help - and hope - to those in need.

'Tis the Season

With Halloween right around the corner, what Catholic elements of the upcoming feast days will your family embrace? There are many opportunities to live out our faith in this season.

The vigil celebration of All Hallows' Eve invites us to ask ourselves what we can do to live more holy. How can you incorporate this conversation into the Halloween preparations of the day?

All Saints Day, Nov. 1, is a holy day when we honor the Saints in heaven and those passed we believe are in heaven. Will you say a prayer the grave of a loved one? Normally a Holy Day of Obligation, this year attending a weekend Mass fulfills that obligation.

On All Souls Day, Nov. 2, we remember and pray for the souls in purgatory. Will you adopt parts of the cultural celebrations of Dia De Los Muertos (Day of the Dead)?

Elementary RE

After weeks of watching videos, reading downloadable books and listening to audio recordings (offered through Formed.org), our elementary children were well-prepared for a family gathering which included Saints Trivia, Saints Bingo, and hot dogs. With the weather so beautiful for both gatherings, and with the help of so many volunteers, both events were truly blessed.

Middle School RE

Our Middle School program is now deep into its Invitation series offered by YDisciple through Formed.org. This program is proving to be fun and educational as our newly formed Pre-Confirmation program. Many thanks to Mrs. Theresa Brier, Middle School RE Coordinator, and the many volunteers who keep this program energetic and fun!

Successful Retreat!

Sixty of our confirmation and high school students attended a retreat with nationally-renowned and teen-engaging speaker Mike Patin last weekend at the Church of the Annunciation in Kearney, MO. The message brought to these students was their need to Seek, to Include, and to Choose. If you know a student who attended, ask them what this means! Thank you to our confirmation catechists and Amanda Lewey, confirmation coordinator, for making this retreat a possibility for our students.

First Reconciliation

Thanks to the many volunteers who helped make our First Reconciliation parent meetings and student retreats a success! All families in our sacrament prep program should be enjoying and working through either the Blessed videos or books (or both) in preparation for the upcoming communal service Reconciliation opportunities. Don't forget to sign up for a practice date and a Reconciliation service.

Honoring The Christ Child Novena Begins November 4

A Novena is traditionally, a nine day devotion. However to make it easier for people to attend during the busy Christmas season, the Novena for Preparing for the Christ Child will held one evening a week for nine weeks.

The beautiful reflections and prayers of this Novena focus on the birth of Jesus and His early years.

Attending this Novena is a wonderful way to prepare hearts the coming of the Christ Child.

Please join us on Thursday evenings at 7:00pm in the Narthex of the former church. This follows the Rosary for Healing that took place in the church.

Military Outreach Ministry

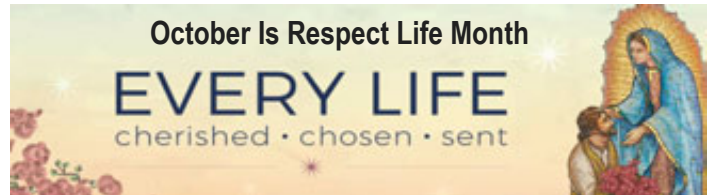

Ann Marie Puck, an Accredited Veteran Service Officer, will be at St. James on Tuesday, October 26 from 4:00 to 5:30pm in the conference room behind the receptionist desk.

She'll be glad to answer your questions and/or can provide information about any of the VA benefits and/or services and also to help individuals in areas such as applying for federal and state benefits.

A Huge THANK YOU From the Knights of Columbus

The Tootsie Roll drive last weekend was an astounding success. We were able to donate a significant amount to help Persons With Special Needs.

Who among all these does not know that the hand of the Lord has done this, in His hand is the life of every creature and the breath of all mankind. (Job 12:9-10). Thank you, Father God, for being the Creator of my life and every life. Please give me, and the society in which I live, an appreciation for your gift of life. Please help us set aside our pride and acknowledge that we need you. Show me how I can honor you today in response to all the blessings you bestow freely.

What can we do in our daily life to respect life?

- Plan a family movie night and select movies depicting life as beautiful.
- Support your local food pantry and thrift stores. Be a volunteer at a food pantry and help in a food kitchen. As pro-lifers, we must care for the needs of all people, born and unborn.
- Pray, pray, pray...for the end of abortion and conversion of hearts. Ask God for courage and charity in all that you do to help save the lives of the unborn and support their parents in their time of need. Ask Him and listen to His response.

RESPECT LIFE

An Invitation To Join The Respect Life Ministry

St. James has a very active Respect Life Ministry that advocates for ALL LIFE from conception to natural death. They work with the Knights Of Columbus in supporting the Roses For Life campaign and support the Liberty Women's Clinic, Love Inc's Care Pantry, and more in our area. They welcome new members to their ministry.

If you are interested, or for more information, please fill out one of the orange cards on the tables in the Gathering Space and drop it in the collection basket this month and someone will contact you.

Or, come to one of our meetings and be part of the exciting plans we have for next year. Meetings are held at 6:30pm on the second Monday of each month in the Conference Room on the lower level of the church.

National Day of the Deployed October 26

On October 26th, National Day of the Deployed annually honors the United States military personnel deployed around the globe.

The designation recognizes all of the brave military personnel who have been deployed, are sacrificing, or have sacrificed their lives to defend our country. It also acknowledges their families who are separated from them during deployment and the sacrifices they make in order for their family members to serve our country.

Many deployed troops leave their families behind to serve their country. They make the greatest sacrifices to keep their country secure.

If you know a family whose loved one is deployed, members of our St. James Military Outreach Ministry has a few suggestions of ways to recognize the services of those who are deployed.

- Prepare a dinner for the family on or near October 26, or anytime.
- Assist with minor inconveniences and household tasks.
- Lend your time and skill. Handy? Fix a leaky faucet or broken fence.
- Invite the family to a party, BBQ, or dinner.
- Deliver groceries, baked goodies or a care package for the spouse or kids. If you wish to remain anonymous leave it at their doorstep.
- Babysit! A military spouse has the role of two parents. Give them some me time or the opportunity to run errands.
- Better yet take the kids out for some fun while the military spouse relaxes.
- Recognize their sacrifice either personally, through social media, email or anyway you can think of.

Birthdays this week: Today we celebrate all that you with God's help, have accomplished.
