From the Pastor's Pen

As we journey through the month of November, we thank God for all God's generous gifts to us individually, as well as our parish family. A special thanks to all who are such good and faithful stewards of St. James.

Because of the generosity of so many our community provides great opportunities to serve those in need, to care for the hurting, the grieving, and to support families living out their faith..

This time of year, we thank you too, for your generosity to the Diocesan Annual Appeal. Our Diocese supports all the parishes in so very many ways, and through Catholic Charities continues to serve the poor and the needy. Your generosity to the Annual Appeal is greatly appreciated. If you are in need of a contribution envelope, we have them available in the Gathering Area.

A special thanks to our Advent Giving Tree team, who continue to carry out God's generosity to us by helping those in need in the larger community celebrate the message of Christmas with their families. Your generosity to the Advent Giving Tree is greatly appreciated.

As you can see, we now are selling HOPE cards following the weekend Masses. You can purchase cards after the Masses in the Gathering Area, or call the parish office during the week and we can make them available to you. This HOPE program goes to benefit the good works of our parish community.

A reminder that all are invited to the Remembrance Service next Sunday, November 21, at 12 Noon to remember all who have died this past year, and to pray for their loved ones and families who will gather next Sunday to remember them. It's a great opportunity to remember God's faithfulness and love in a difficult time in the lives of so many individuals and families.

All are invited to our Thanksgiving Mass on Thanksgiving Day at 9am. This is a great way to gather and express our gratitude for all God's gifts.

We remember our young people preparing for Sacraments. Following Thanksgiving our second graders, and those children preparing for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, will be receiving that Sacrament and experiencing God's Healing Love. Then in February our young people preparing for Confirmation will be receiving that Sacrament, with Bishop Johnston here with us to experience

Someone is Watching and Wondering

When I was in high school, I was given a simple silver charm to add to my bracelet with the words of this prayer: "God, give me grace to accept with serenity the things that cannot be changed, courage to change the things that should be changed, and the wisdom to distinguish the one from the other." Perhaps you know these words as, The Serenity Prayer. I lost count of how many times I have prayed these words since high school yet they still continue to provide comfort, guidance, and hope as I struggle with loss and the need to continue life; life that is forever changed yet still filled with the beauty of God's creation. Not surprisingly, if you know me well, I frequently find myself uttering these words either while working in my gardens, walking along a wooded path, or sitting quietly on the shores of a lake, or surrounded by mountains. I always seem to find hope, and the presence of God in nature. There is something about the natural world that overwhelms my senses and fills me with wonder and awe. When I found myself discouraged and grieving a loss, I couldn't pray or even stay for extended periods of time in enclosed spaces. I needed to feel the natural elements: the sun, wind, refreshing/cleansing rain. I needed to experience the seasons: falling leaves, spring scents and flowers, the gentle touch of snowflakes, the warmth of summer, the moon and stars at night, sunrises and sunsets. I wasn't able to vocalize prayer. Instead, I felt my prayers were experiences of God. I listened to the sounds of nature and knew God was speaking to me. I touched the soil and felt God's life force in my hands. I knew God was cleansing my life, slowly washing away my sadness, my sorrow, and my feelings of hopelessness. As I walked along wooded paths I felt that God was leading me, encouraging me to find my continuing life's journey, knowing the Holy Spirit would show me which turn to take, which new path to follow. I understood that somehow God was feeling my pain and would not leave me to suffer alone.

Each of us experiences grief in unique ways and finds God's presence at different times, through different experiences, and discover our own way to pray. All I can offer, to anyone who is hurting at this time, particularly during this month of November as we remember the dead, is that you allow yourself the freedom to open your heart to God's healing. I do not believe there is any greater comfort than the realization the God loves us, never leaves us to suffer alone, and always walks with us through life. God does not ask us to bury our feelings with the dead; God offers the freedom to be, to feel, to experience our pain knowing that we are not alone. God always provides the strength for us to accept the reality of our loss, experience the pain and emotions related to loss, adjust to life without the deceased, and find ways to remember and memorialized our loved one that are healthy and life-giving. God graces us with the serenity to accept the things we cannot change, the courage to change what we can, and the wisdom to know the difference. All we need to do is ask,

Your Sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

Digital Hymn Number Board Now Installed In The Church

By now, you've probably seen our new digital hymn board being operated during Mass. We know that many, many, MANY people have been asking about this since our dedication. In case you haven't noticed it yet, it's on the north wall behind the music area.

Thanks to a very generous donation we have found the best solution. Not only will the hymn numbers be posted, the cantors will also post the numbers for the Sunday readings in the back of the hymnal.

Please be patient as there may be mistakes from time to time as everyone gets used to using it.

We Couldn't Have Done This Without You!

Thanks from the In As Much Food Pantry for the terrific food drive turn out. And, big thanks to the Knights of Columbus for all their work and parishioners who participated in this drive. It was a very good drive.

Early Bulletin Deadline For November 28 Bulletin

Our bulletin printer has an early deadline for the November 28 bulletin.

Articles and information for this bulletin must be submitted no later than end of day Tuesday, November 16.

November Blood Drive November 23 ~ 12:30 - 6:30pm

Community Blood Center will be here on Tuesday, November 23 from 12:30-6:30pm in the Social Hall for our final blood drive of 2021.

We are looking for healthy individuals, who are at least 17 years of age (16 with parent's signed consent), weigh at least 110 pounds, and have 30-60 minutes to spare to help save lives. All presenting donors will receive a KC Chiefs Kingdom Blood Drive t-shirt.

Appointments are highly recommended and can be made online at www.savealifenow.org using group code "ES". You may also contact Nikki at 816-407-1208 or kpower@kc.rr.com. Walk-ins will be permitted if capacity allows. If you have medical eligibility questions, please call 1-800-688-0900. Face masks are required regardless of vaccination status.

St. James Advent Giving Tree Is Collecting Donations Now

The Advent Giving Tree is off to a great start! Thanks to all of you who donated last week. As you know, our Advent Giving Tree (AGT) has been a favorite ministry at St. James for many years.

In 2020, given the pandemic, we changed our approach to funding the AGT, and this year we'll take the same approach - using your cash donations to purchase Hope gift cards, which we will then donate to nine charitable organizations within the metro area.

Through November 28 , you can contribute by:

- Placing your donation in the Advent Giving Tree collection basket in the Gathering Space during all Masses.
- Mailing your donation to St. James Catholic Church, Attn: AGT, 309 S. Stewart Rd., Liberty 64068
- Dropping your donation off in the Parish Office.

Please make checks payable to St. James Church with "AGT" on the notation line.

This week we are highlighting the services of three more organizations AGT supports:

* Love, INC is a partnership of local Christian churches that have joined together to provide volunteer and financial support to the poor. Last year, Love INC served 7,325 individuals in Clay County, providing families with financial assistance and monthly care plans, and in many cases providing emergency rent or utility assistance. This year, AGT will again donate Hope gift cards to assist Love INC with gift bags that include fun Christmas items, as well as gift cards to help families purchase food or clothing.

* Ashton Court is a senior living and rehabilitation center in Liberty. Last year, through AGT, parishioners provided 115 residents with Christmas gift bags containing some of residents' most requested items (e.g. lap blankets, socks, bath supplies, puzzle books, etc.). This year we will again provide Christmas gift bags to each resident.

* Cedars of Liberty is a retirement and assisted living facility in Liberty. Last year, through AGT, parishioners provided 115 residents with Christmas gift bags containing some of residents' most requested items (e.g., lap blankets, socks, bath supplies, puzzles, books, etc.). This year we will again provide Christmas gift bags to each resident.

Thank you so much for helping our Advent Giving Tree continue to be a bright spot for those in need!!

Knights of Columbus, Council 6780, Helping To Improve The Lives Of Others

Mike Kieffer and Grand Knight Kevin Casel (right) presenting the check to Fr. Coday.

Well known in our parish for helping others, our St. James Knights of Columbus council recently received a request from Fr. Timothy Coday, C.P.P.S. that provided an opportunity to spread their generosity to people living over 8,000 miles away.

As a member of the Kansas City Province of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood, Fr. Coday's current assignment is in Malongwe, a remote village in Western Tanzania. One of his tasks is to repair, remodel and make viable a health facility there.

His desire was to purchase and install a rice hulling machine. Having one would help improve the lives of the people in this village and subsidize the income of the health facility, making it self-sufficient. This in turn would provide excellent health care for the people in the area.

Kudos to our Knights - they donated funds sufficient enough to not only purchase the equipment, but also to transport and install it in Malongwe.

First Reconciliation A Simple Request of Our Parish Family

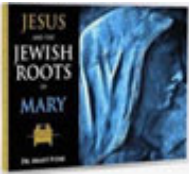

St. James is blessed to be preparing 80 students for their First Reconciliation.

These students and their families will receive the sacrament at the end of this month.

We ask our entire parish family to add these children and their parents to their prayers, asking that in the sacrament they are wrapped fully in God's loving mercy.

Saturday Morning Faith Formation New Program

"Jesus and the Jewish Roots of Mary"

The program for Saturday, November 20 will feature a video by Dr. Brant Pitre as he shines the light of the Old Testament on Mary, the mother of Jesus. During this presentation, he provides the answers to questions often asked such as: Do Catholics worship Mary? Why do Catholics believe in the Assumption of Mary? Is Mary the Queen of the Kingdom?

All are invited to attend this class and learn the answers to these intriguing questions.

Saturday Morning Faith Formation meets in person at 10:00am in the Conference Room (lower level of the church).

All Are Welcome and Invited To Attend

Please note, this class will not meet on November 27 (Thanksgiving Weekend).

A Big Thank You From Cornerstones of Care

Your donations to the Clothing and Household Items drive last month, sponsored by the Altar Society, was an overwhelming success.

Cornerstones of Care is so very grateful for your generosity.

Thank You.

Parish Religious Education

First Reconciliation: Why do I need to confess my sins to a priest? Why can't I just confess to God? This excerpt from "A Little Book About Confession for Children" explains it so simply:

Absolutely you can ask God to forgive your sins, and you should. Since Jesus is God, he had the power to forgive sins. He gave that power to his Apostles when after his Resurrection he breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." Priests today still have this power given to them by Jesus. Jesus wanted us to confess our sins to God, through the church.

Confirmation: Confirmation students meet on Nov. 21 for student-only session. Mark your calendars now for Friday, December 3rd at 7pm. Together, we will experience an evening of praise and worship that will include Adoration. Saturday morning, December 4th, Confirmation students with their sponsors and/or parents, will gather to participate in local service projects. Through these service projects, we share with our teens the Corporal Works of Mercy – not through a lecture but through our actions.

Middle and High School RE Program: The updates to our middle school program are taking shape as our Pre-Confirmation program is put into action. The same is true of our high school program, which is serving some students who have not confirmed as well as those in the Post-Confirmation stage. Those attending our programs are strengthening their knowledge of the Catholic faith while at the same time developing relationships with Jesus and being made aware of the call that exists even at this young age. Experiences are being offered – not just lectures. Please continue to pray for the success of this program, for which we are most grateful!

Elementary RE: Upcoming Session: Sunday 11/14. A bedtime routine that is as important and as easy as brushing your teeth is a 3-2-1 daily routine. This process is as beneficial to the adult as it is to a child who has not yet reached the age to receive the sacrament of reconciliation. It's a process that leads us to personal growth in our daily faith lives and helps us to be prepared for confession. Here's how it works:

- Turn to the Father and thank Him for at least 3 things from your day
- Turn to the Son, and ask forgiveness for at least 2 failings
- Turn to the Spirit, and make 1 concrete, measurable resolution for the next day

Birthdays this week: Today we celebrate all that you with God's help, have accomplished.
