Hope Gift Cards Available For Sale After Morning Masses Next Sunday, February 6

We're pleased to announce that HOPE Gift Cards will be available for sale after the 8:00am and 10:30am next Sunday.

We'd like to sell HOPE Cards after Sunday morning Masses every week . . . but we need your help.

We currently have volunteers to sell the cards the first Sunday of each month. In order to sell these cards every Sunday, we need more volunteers.

Selling the cards takes only a little extra time after the Mass you attend and the schedules are flexible. If you can volunteer or want more information, contact Ernie Collins (x208) or Jeanne Greenwald (x200) in the parish office.

The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph is committed to combatting sexual abuse in the Church. If you are a victim of sexual abuse, or if you observe or suspect sexual abuse:

2. Contact your local law enforcement agency or call 911, and
3. After reporting to these civil and law enforcement authorities, report suspected sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult to the Diocesan Ombudsman, Joe Crayon, at 816.812.2500 or crayon@ombudsmankcsj.org, if the abuse involves a priest, deacon, employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph.

The Diocese has a sincere commitment to providing care and healing resources to victims of sexual abuse and their families. Please contact Whitney True-Francis, Victim Assistance Coordinator, at 816.392.0011 or true.francis@diocesekcsj.org for more information.

From the Pastor's Pen

This week two significant events involving our parish youth will take place. We begin the week with the celebration of National Catholic Schools Week. Catholic elementary and high schools across the country will be observing a common theme: 'Catholic Schools: Faith, Excellence, Service.'

Our own St. James School has a mission statement which expresses its goals. "The staff of St. James school is committed to excellence in Catholic education within the structure of the Roman Catholic Church. We recognize the parents as primary educators of their children in the task of education in all aspects of school life. In a positive, caring, and supportive environment, we work to facilitate the development of confident, competent, and caring Catholic-Christian citizens prepared to be responsible members in service of their church, local, and global communities."

Why should the parish spend such great resources to fund a school? Because St. James School not only is a way of passing on the faith, but also a sign of a Catholic presence among us, representing our desire to keep our Catholic traditions alive in the hearts and lives of our young people. Thank you for supporting this key ministry.

The other event happening this week is the celebration of Confirmation with Bishop Johnston this Thursday evening. Nearly 80 high school students have been preparing for this gift. We believe that Confirmation is the great sign of the presence of the Holy Spirit guiding and strengthening us in the profession of our faith. The key signs of the sacrament are the laying on hands by the bishop and the anointing with the sacred chrism. Given our human weakness, we cannot profess and live the values of our faith without divine guidance. The oil symbolizes healing, guiding, strengthening, helping the candidates to embrace and live their faith in the midst of a very secular world which often seeks to drive them away from the Lord and the Church.

So we place our young people in the hands of the Lord, begging the Lord to help them to be strong and committed to the Lord and to the Church. Congratulations, young people. We need your faith and witness.

Know that my prayers are with you each day.

Fr. Michael

Someone is Watching and Wondering

Where is Christ in your life? This is a question I often ask myself. When I fail to notice one of my brothers or sisters have I also failed to see the face of Christ? Who are the people that pass before me every day that I fail to see, that I fail to acknowledge with a glance, a smile, or a word? Who are the faceless, forgotten people in my world.

Sometimes I think it is easier to look the other way when I am confronted with pain and suffering, with the voiceless, the powerless, the homeless, the ordinary people, regardless of age, who struggle in silence, who simple need to be acknowledged. I know that Jesus holds these people within his loving embrace, yet I know that in my life which is blessed in so many ways, there are times when I feel very much alone and forgotten. I know how a smile, a hello, a touch, or the presence of another person can change my day and my feelings from despair to hope. Today as I write these words the sun is shining and the air is warm enough to spend some time out-or-doors. I even have a few windows open to welcome the freshness of the day. I know I'm not a plant capable of photosynthesis, and yet I know I gain strength from the sun, the feel of the earth under my feet, and the light breeze which to me feels like the kiss of God. I cannot imagine not being able to spend time in nature. I watch the stars and moon cross the night sky and I know the each new day will bring yet another experience of God's creation and I am filled with peace and love.

As I interact with other individuals, I hope I can give them a sense of the glory of life which God gives to each of us. Yet at the same time I feel unprepared to reach the faceless, nameless people that pass before me. I know that I will never be able to reach everyone but I also know that I must be present to those who appear before me. Recently someone said to me, "There is no cost to being kind." Perhaps kindness begins with looking directly into the face of one another, smiling, and nodding to him or her. No, such gestures do not cost anything but a few seconds of my time. Maybe a phone call or card sent with a few personal words and an offer of prayer lifted to the Lord remembering that person. Over the past two years personal visits have been difficult but I believe I must remain diligent in reaching out to others, no matter their circumstance in life. In the past I found it easier to hide in plain site but I must also say that is a very lonely and dark place to be. Now I think of have a greater appreciation for others who hide in plain site, either purposefully or by circumstances beyond their control. My hope is that I can bring Christ's light to others who find themselves hidden, overlooked, or forgotten.

Your Sister in Christ Jesus, Sandy Gagnon

St. Mary's Food Kitchen Ministry Needs Help

After 32 years, Don Ollier is scaling back his involvement at the St. Mary's Food Kitchen. As the leader of this ministry, Don has been the mainstay of ensuring that the thousands of meals that St. James provides and serves are "ready to serve" on the Fourth Sunday of every month.

At St. James we feel that it is imperative to continue our presence at St. Mary's Food Kitchen and the Parish Council has been working on a plan to ensure that this tradition can be continued into the future.

Many tasks are required to serve this meal every month. These include menu planning, food inventory, meal preparation and transportation to the food kitchen.

All of the aforementioned tasks have been filled except for one – FOOD PREPARATION – and this is where we need the help of our parishioners.

We are looking for parishioners to "step up to the plate" and serve on a Cooking Team.

Job Description:

- Prepare the main entree for up to 200 people.
- This meal should be prepared in the St. James School Kitchen ensuring that all safety standards are met. The parish will pay for at least one person on the team to attend food health safety classes, if needed.

- The school kitchen must be scheduled but usually is open Friday evening through Saturday evening.
- The meal must be prepared by 9:00am on the Fourth Sunday of the Month.

Supplies Available:

- The menu will be known at least one week beforehand. We hope to rotate the menu through nine choices.
- The ingredients will be available, either in the school kitchen or other designated areas.
- The ministry has its own serving pans. The cooked entrees are to be stored in the school kitchen refrigerator in those pans. Others will pick and deliver to the food kitchen on the fourth Sunday of the month.

We are trying to put together at least three teams of cooks. If we achieve this then every team would only cook once per calendar quarter. By having nine menu choices we would ask each team to master 3 recipes each which they would then rotate.

Cooking teams can be made up of a family or a group of people who are willing to serve on a team.

To volunteer or for more information, please contact Parish Council Chair Dan Bacon at:

WELCOME TO ANGELS ATTIC
 Your CATHOLIC Thrift Store

Our Thrift Store is located at 6970 N Broadway, St. James, MO. We are seeking volunteers to help with sorting, pricing, and shelving items. For more information, please contact Jaci Blinzler at 816-820-9797 or Jaci.blinzler@gmail.com.

Angels Attic Thrift store located at 6970 N Broadway is in desperate need of volunteers who can give 2 hours a month or 2 hours a week or more as a volunteer.

Our thrift store donates 90% of their profits to Catholic education in the Northland. In 2021, we were able to give away over $6,000 to Catholic education. We hope to see this number double or triple this year.

Since Covid we have lost 40 volunteers and are in desperate need of volunteers.

If you can help, please call Jaci at 816-820-9797 or Jaci.blinzler@gmail.com
