From the Pastor's Pen

We continue our Lenten journey and invite you to be part of our Lenten activities: Stations of the Cross on Friday evenings, Daily Mass each morning at 8:15am and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on Thursdays. And, the church is open throughout the day if you and your family would like to stop by to visit the Lord.

Our Knights had a very successful and well attended first Fish Fry – both Curbside, as well as Dining In. The next Fish Fry is next Friday, March 25. Come and join us and have a great meal as well as the opportunity to gather with others (or pick one up and take it to share with others). We also help the Knights of Columbus who do such a great job for our parish community.

Our Lenten Reconciliation Service is Monday, March 28th, at 7:00pm. We will have several priests available for the Sacrament. Come and join us and celebrate God's forgiving Love in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

We are in need of a couple new folks for the Pastoral Council. If you would like to support our parish community, or know someone who would be a good voice for our Pastoral Council, please put the name in the basket that is located in the Gathering Space.

A word about our Friday morning School Mass at 8:15am

Our school community joins us for Mass on Friday mornings, and the students do a great job in leading our community, both in music as well as liturgical roles of proclaiming God's Word and bringing up the gifts of bread and wine.

Beginning next Friday, March 25, we will be having the children sit in the front sections of the Church, and our Adults are invited to be seated in the back of the church. This is so the young children especially can be closer to the altar and be able to have a better view. This is the way we worshipped before COVID.

Also, the musicians need to prepare for Mass earlier, so the praying of the Rosary will take place in our Chapel on Fridays.

All are welcome to join us at Friday mornings at our 8:15am Mass.

Next Friday, we will be celebrating the Feast of the Annunciation of the Lord, so we call upon the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, especially for the gift of peace in Ukraine, as well as all the world, an end to war, and for the gift of True Peace.

Blessings to you and your family,

Fr. Mike

MARCH BLOOD DRIVE AT ST. JAMES Tuesday, March 22

At our January blood drive, we welcomed 113 donors and collected 103 units of blood. There were 10 first-time donors. Thank you to everyone who helped make that drive a success. Your generosity had a major impact on the lives of patients in our Liberty/KC area.

Our next Community Blood Center (CBC) blood drive will be on Tuesday, March 22 from 12:30 - 6:30pm in the Social Hall.

Your blood donation could leave an even bigger impression on our community. Blood shortages and food struggles have been an issue during the pandemic. When you register your appointment online, the CBC will donate to Harvesters Community Food Network on your behalf. This is a great opportunity to give a little extra to those in need.

If you are a healthy individual, age 16 years or older, you can register at www.savealifenow.org/group using group code ES. You may also contact Nikki at 816-407-1208 or kpower@kc.rr.com. Appointments fill up fast, but walk-ins will be permitted if space allows. Be sure to eat well and drink plenty of water before your appointment and remember to bring your donor card or picture ID. Masks are required regardless of vaccination status.

For questions about medical eligibility, please call 800-688-0900.

As always, thank you for supporting the blood drives at St. James!

You + CBC + Harvesters = A Life-Saving Team

Someone is Watching and Wondering

Continuing my discussion on discernment, I would like to suggest a re-reading of Matthew 20:28-28, a familiar story of the mother of James and John requesting that her sons receive a position of prestige and power from Jesus. Jesus' reply addresses her and the disciples, "you do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I am going to drink?" I believe Jesus' words continue to challenge everyone who profess to be Christian. I find myself asking, "How far am I willing to go in order to faithfully follow Jesus; do I know what I am asking?"

The Book of Proverbs teaches that "fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; wisdom and instruction fools despise" (Chapter 1:5) and "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, on your own intelligence rely not; In all your ways be mindful of him, and he will make straight your paths" (Chapter 3:5-6). The Letter to the Ephesians builds on this wisdom: "Let no one deceive you with empty arguments. . .you were once in darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light. .Try to learn what is pleasing to the Lord. . expose [works of darkness]. . live not as foolish persons but as wise. . do not continue in ignorance, but try to understand what is the will of the Lord: (Eph 5:6-20). I highlight these last words because I think they express the essence of spiritual discernment: trying to understand the will of God in my life. Such understanding requires an honest acknowledgment of my failures, shortcomings, and ways in which I sin, both on a personal level and as part of a larger community that perpetuates systemic isms, hate and unreasonable distrust toward other people. I also must acknowledge when my feelings of hopelessness interfere with being open to and following my understanding of how God is calling me, not only to embrace the light but also to shine the light of Christ in the darkness which seems to engulf our world (i.e. wars, violence, taking of innocent lives, discrimination that prevents people feeling safe and valued, not accepting every individual as created and loved by God, and closing my eyes and mind to broad generalizations that perpetuate an "us vs them" mentality). There are many times when I feel overwhelmed, and yet I also feel the gently nudge of God, pushing me out of my comfort zone, encouraging me not to withdraw into myself, hiding from evil, but instead to stand tall, speak out, and act in love and service to others.

As I stated last week, I am uncertain where God will lead me, yet one thing I know is that God never abandons me to exist alone. God is always with me, leading me in wisdom and truth.

Your Sister in Christ Jesus, Sandy Gagnon

March is Social Workers Month

March is a time to celebrate the great profession of social work.

Let us pray for social workers everywhere, who are often forgotten when we think of first responders, although many of them are.

They are underpaid, under-appreciated, and work with people when they are at their most fragile and damaged points.

We thank God for calling people to this profession, and we thank them for their dedication to an often thankless job that sees more than its share of heart-break.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THE Friday Morning School Mass at 8:15am

Beginning next Friday, March 25, we will be having the children sit in the front sections of the Church, and our Adults are invited to be seated in the back of the church.

When we re-opened after COVID, adults were in the front and kids were socially distant in the pews behind them (in the center section). But now we're bringing kids back to the front.

Also, because the musicians need to prepare for Mass earlier, the praying of the Rosary will take place in our Chapel on Fridays.

Join The St. James Lawn Mowing Team

Spring will be coming real soon and our lawn mowing teams need some fresh talent. Starting no later than April, we will want to have our lawn mowing teams up and running.

We have quite a few guys returning from last year but we need at least ten or more people to step up and help. Just like last season, we plan on having three teams (Red, White and Blue). Each team will be placed on a 3 week rotation. There is no need for anyone to bring up mowers or other equipment. We just need them to volunteer approximately 3 hours every 3 weeks. If they can run a push mower or a riding mower then we can use their help. The schedule is dependent upon the weather but usually mowing is done from Thursday through Saturday.

Solemnity of The Annunciation Of Our Lord March 25

The Annunciation (from Latin annuntiatio), also referred to as the Annunciation to the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Annunciation of Our Lady, or the Annunciation of the Lord, is the Christian celebration of the announcement by the Archangel Gabriel to the Blessed Virgin Mary that she would conceive and become the mother of Jesus, the Jewish messiah and Son of God, marking His Incarnation. Gabriel told Mary to name her son Jesus, meaning "YHWH is salvation".

According to Luke 1:26, the Annunciation occurred "in the sixth month" of Elizabeth's pregnancy with John the Baptist. Many Christians observe this event with the Feast of the Annunciation on March 25, an approximation of the northern vernal equinox nine full months before Christmas, the ceremonial birthday of Jesus.

The Annunciation is a key topic in Christian art in general, as well as in Marian art in the Catholic Church, having been especially prominent during the Middle Ages and Renaissance.

To reflect on this great moment in history, here are 3 practical lessons we can learn from Mary:

1. Be prepared to be used by God. As an unmarried young woman from Nazareth, Mary has a very low social status, but God doesn't care about that. Mary continues a long list of people in the Bible who felt inadequate (Moses, Rahab, David, Jonah, Naomi to name just a few) that God uses to fulfill His promises.
2. Put your faith in God. In great contrast to Zechariah, the father of John the Baptist who doubts Gabriel's announcement that he'll have a son, Mary is described by her cousin Elizabeth as "she who has believed" (Luke 1:45).
3. Live your life as a servant of the Lord. Mary ultimately responds to Gabriel with the powerful words, "I am the Lord's servant. May your word to me be fulfilled" (Luke 1:38). Through Mary's willingness to be used by God, we have an incredible example of the Apostle Paul's later request for followers of Christ to be a "living sacrifice" (Romans 12:1).

First Eucharist Retreat

First Eucharist retreat with First communicants and their parents - making bread; praying for patience and trusting in God's care that all their good efforts will produce a finished loaf of bread.

The communicants took their loaves home to bake and to share with their family.

Recipe ingredients:

Wheat reminds us of Jesus feeding thousands. Water reminds us of our baptism. Oil seals us with the Holy Spirit. Salt reminds us that we are the flavor of our humanity. Yeast calls us to change our hearts as we grow in Love for God and neighbor. Sugar reminds us of the sweetness of the fruits of the Spirit (Joy).

The end product is Bread - for the World - Jesus who gave his life for the world. Do this in memory of Me.

Praying During Lent

The goal of Lent is to build new virtues or good habits in our lives through prayer, fasting and/or almsgiving. By doing this we are learning to live a life in which we honor, glorify and thank God for the sacrifice of His Son, Jesus. This week let's talk about prayer.

Prayer is simply talking and listening to God. Your prayers don't have to be perfect. Just talk and express your concerns, your hopes and dreams, your needs. After all, prayer helps to build a personal relationship between you and God. Prayer can take many forms as you will see in the ideas below.

1. Take 15 or 30 minutes each day in quiet time by yourself to pray. Get a notebook and write a letter to God each day thanking Him for all His blessings and telling him your concerns and needs.
2. Read about the virtue of and pray for humility. Seek out opportunities to humble yourself in your relationship with others by giving someone else credit or recognition throughout each day.
3. Take some time to read the daily Mass Scripture readings each day. Read Bishop Robert Barron's thoughts each day for better understanding at www.wordonfire.org. There's also a link on this website to the daily readings.
4. Go to Eucharistic Adoration each week on Thursday in the chapel. You can make a short visit or try to stay for an hour.
5. Forgive those who have offended you and pray for those who have hurt you.
6. Go to Mass every day. Invite someone who doesn't regularly attend Mass to come to church with you one day during the week.
7. Make a conscious decision before work, chores or study to offer up whatever you are doing in love to God. Do these with joy, not grumbling or griping.
8. Give thanks daily for the trials in your life with the confidence that God will turn them to good. Continually look for the big and small blessings in your life. Keep a gratitude journal.

Birthdays this week: Today we celebrate all that you with God's help, have accomplished.
