From the Pastor's Pen

This weekend we move into Ordinary Time. This means that with the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ last weekend, the feasts are behind us. As summer moves on, as well as the heat, we hope that families are getting sometime to relax. I'm sure that between sports activities and other daily needs, life can remain hectic.

Next weekend we celebrate the 4th of July, which has been known as the 'halfway' point of summer.

We're urging families to think of the Fall season. We currently are offering the opportunity to pre-register your children in our Religious Ed programs. There's lots of excitement and energy in our Religious Education staff, that with the pandemic behind us (hopefully), we will go back to 'in-person' gatherings. We'd like to see all parents of our youth take advantage of these programs.

As has been advertised in the Bulletin, St. James School has openings in our various grades from Pre-K to Grade 8. We'd love to have families take advantage of a Catholic education.

We congratulate Juan Rodriguez, of our parish community who, along with fifteen other men, was ordained a Deacon for our Diocese last weekend. St. James proudly hosted that Ordination event. Many parishioners, family members and friends of those ordained attended this wonderful ceremony - it was almost a "full house." See pictures on page 6.

Juan is technically assigned to Sacred Heart-Guadalupe Parish, an Hispanic ministry on the Westside of Kansas City, but we will see him here at St. James often, serving on the altar, and occasionally preaching. Congratulations to Juan; he joins Deacon Chuck in their ministry of serving the people of God here at St. James as Deacons.

Blessings to you and your families.

Peace,
Fr. Mike

Someone is Watching and Wondering

I have been asked many times to explain my vision of catechesis, i.e. “teaching faith.” My vision of catechesis is a journey with another individual who feels the stirrings of desire for something greater than themselves; someone who gives meaning and purpose to their life. In truth I cannot teach faith. I can nurture and encourage the beginnings of faith which I believe are the workings of the Holy Spirit within each of God’s daughters and sons

The English word faith, derived from Latin fides and Old French feid, means to have confidence or trust in a person, thing, or concept. In the context of religion, one can define faith as belief in God or in the doctrines or teachings of religion. I do not believe it is possible to teach trust, confidence, or belief. What is possible, however, is to introduce the person and teachings of Jesus which are found in sacred scripture, and helping seekers to recognize God in the wonders of creation, Jesus in the kindness and works of those they encounter in daily living, and the Holy Spirit as the source of their hope for meaning and purpose.

According to the General Directory for Catechesis, the baptismal catechumenate is divided into four stages – each associated with a different level of faith development. The precatechumenate is an opportunity to explore the beginnings or stirring of faith (belief in God) within the individual. The catechumenate is a time for nurturing this beginning of faith, as well as helping the individual to understand and accept the truth of conversion (giving one’s life to Christ Jesus). The third stage described as the time of purification and enlightenment, which is generally associated with the Lenten season, is a time of intense reflection, centered on continual conversion and the final preparations for receiving the Sacraments of Initiation. The final stage mystagogy is the time to experience full participation in the Christian Community, which I believe does not end with the Easter season but rather is a life-long process of conversion, catechesis, that leads to a richer, more fulfilling life of faith. According to the USCCB, all evangelization / faith formation should follow this paradigm. With confidence, therefore, I restate, I cannot teach faith, but I will be happy to be a companion on your faith journey.

Your Sister in Christ Jesus, Sandy Gagnon

Introducing Our New Pastoral Council Members

Recently elected Pastoral Council members are Sherri Porterfield, Eddie Baker, and Kevin Casel. Included below are pictures of each along with “thumbnail” sketches about them. They will begin their term as council members in August.

Sherri Porterfield

Originally from Poplar Bluff, Missouri, Sherri considers her St. James family to be one of God’s greatest blessings for her life. For 36 years, She taught choral music to middle school and high school students, taught teachers in workshops and directed honor choirs throughout the United States before retiring in 2016.

Since becoming a member of St. James in 2016, she has been involved in the music ministry, playing the piano for Mass and special occasions when needed. She has also served as a member of the Faith Formation ministry and is a member of the Respect Life Ministry. She has facilitated numerous women’s Bible studies, including serving with the Walking with Purpose ministry.

Sherri is very honored to be chosen to become a member of the Pastoral Council. She is passionate about helping everyone to experience the joy of God through the study of His Word and a deeper knowledge of our Catholic Faith and by helping our community to grow through service to others. She looks forward to using the gifts that God has given her to assist Fr. Mike and our church family.

Kevin Casel

Kevin Casel has called St James his church home since 2016.

He grew up in Dubuque, Iowa and graduated from Loras College. After many years of living in the western states, he returned to the midwest and is a consultant. He is a member of the Knights of Columbus (past Grand Knight), That Man is You and also serves as an Usher and Eucharistic Minister.

Kevin is honored to be chosen to serve on the Pastoral Council and looks forward to assisting Father Mike by always looking towards the future with the wisdom of the past.

Eddie Baker

Eddie and his wife Lisa have been parishioners here at St. James since 1996. They have 3 grown children and 1 finishing High School at Liberty.

He is a cantor and a member of the Knights of Columbus. Lisa has been assisting with Summer Bible School and the Blood Drives for years.

Outside St. James Eddie has been active in Liberty High School Athletics Boosters and Fine Arts Boosters when not at work for the KCFD. He is honored to have the opportunity to help our parish by serving on the Pastoral Council.

SELLING HOPE GIFT CARDS AFTER 5PM SATURDAY MASS

We've had requests to sell HOPE cards after the 5pm Saturday Mass. We would like to, but to do so would require volunteers to sell them.

CAN YOU HELP?

If you can volunteer or want more information, contact Ernie Collins (x208) or Jeanne Greenwald (x200) in the parish office.

We Congratulate Juan Rodriguez On His Ordination to Permanent Deacon

On Saturday, June 18th, our parishioner Juan Rodriguez, along with 15 other men, was ordained a Permanent Deacon for our diocese by Bishop Johnston at an Ordination Mass held here at St. James.

The bishop has assigned Juan to serve at Sacred Heart-Guadalupe Parish in Kansas City, but we will see him here often serving on the altar in his role as deacon. He is pictured here with his wife Maria and son Kelvin.

In the Catholic Church, permanent deacons can baptize, witness marriages, perform funeral and burial services outside of Mass, distribute Holy Communion, and preach the homily. Pictured, at left, is Deacon Juan with our own Deacon Chuck at Saturday's Ordination Mass.

Let's keep Juan, his wife Maria and their family in our prayers.

Saints Peter and Paul Feast Day June 29

These two saints are the founders of the See of Rome, through their preaching, ministry and martyrdom there.

Peter, who was named Simon, was a fisherman of Galilee. Jesus gave him the name Cephas (Petrus in Latin), which means 'Rock', because he was to become the rock upon which Christ would build His Church.

St. Paul was the Apostle of the Gentiles. His letters are included in the writings of the New Testament, and through them we learn much about his life and the faith of the early Church.

In the year 395, St. Augustine of Hippo said of Saints Peter and Paul: "Both apostles share the same feast day, for these two were one; and even though they suffered on different days, they were as one. Peter went first, and Paul followed. And so we celebrate this day made holy for us by the apostles' blood."

Feast of the Most Precious Blood July 1

July 1st is the Feast of the Precious Blood and the month of July is dedicated to the Precious Blood.

The feast of the Precious Blood of our Lord was instituted in 1849 by Pius IX, but the devotion is as old as Christianity.

The early Fathers say that the Church was born from the pierced side of Christ, and that the sacraments were brought forth through His Blood.

After Vatican II the feast was removed from the calendar, but a votive Mass in honor of the Precious Blood was established and can be celebrated in the month of July (as well as most other months of the year).

A Supreme Court Ruling That Would Affect Roe v. Wade

The U.S. Supreme Court is expected to issue its decision in Dobbs v. Jackson by the end of June. The decision could overturn Roe v. Wade, a 1973 Supreme Court decision that essentially meant that the preborn were outside the protection of the law.

In the event that Roe v. Wade is overturned, decisions about protection of life for the unborn would revert to the individual states.

In God's eyes, all human life is sacred. God has a plan for every person – every mother, and every pre-born child.

The Church in the United States has a long history of service to those who are most vulnerable and consistently bears witness in word and deed to the beauty and dignity of every human life - including both mother and child. It has developed many ministries to serve expectant mothers who face difficult pregnancies and those who find it difficult to care for their children after they are born. For example,

- Over 150,000 low-income women deliver their babies at Catholic hospitals each year.
- Church ministries like Catholic Charities serve women and their children long after they are born, offering comprehensive social services to those in need.

- The Sisters of Life, a growing religious community of women who, by their way of life, bear witness to the beauty and dignity of every human life. The Sisters welcome pregnant women into their homes and provide life-changing material and spiritual resources to women in crisis.
- Another rapidly growing initiative is "Walking with Moms in Need," sponsored by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. This parish-based process helps parishioners connect with local mothers facing difficult or challenging pregnancies, identifying local resources and filling the gaps so that pregnant and parenting women receive the material, spiritual, and emotional support they need.

Let us pray that the final Supreme Court decision will be peacefully accepted and respected by all.

Our focus must continue to be providing support and resources to families in need and connecting with expectant mothers who need reassurance they are not alone.

Let us pray for the conversion of hearts and minds to embrace each child as a gift from God.

Why Is Ordinary Time Called Ordinary?

Ordinary Time is called "ordinary" not because it is common but simply because the weeks of Ordinary Time are numbered. The Latin word ordinalis, which refers to numbers in a series, stems from the Latin word ordo, from which we get the English word order. Thus, the numbered weeks of Ordinary Time, in fact, represent the ordered life of the Church – the period in which we live our lives neither in feasting (as in the Christmas and Easter seasons) or in more severe penance (as in Advent and Lent), but in watchfulness and expectation of the Second Coming of Christ.

It's appropriate, therefore, that the Gospel for the Second Sunday of Ordinary Time (which is actually the first Sunday celebrated in Ordinary Time) always features either John the Baptist's acknowledgment of Christ as the Lamb of God or Christ's first miracle – the transformation of water into wine at the wedding at Cana.

Thus for Catholics, Ordinary Time is the part of the year in which Christ, the Lamb of God, walks among us and transforms our lives. There's nothing "ordinary" about that!

National Eucharistic Revival

The Bishops of the United States are calling for a three-year grassroots revival of devotion and belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist.

The three-year initiative, that began on June 19, will culminate in the first National Eucharistic Congress in the United States in almost fifty years, where almost a hundred thousand Catholics will join together in Indianapolis for a once-in-a-lifetime pilgrimage toward the “source and summit” of our Catholic faith.
