Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve every one, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

Love INC is helping to assist families and children in need with basic hygiene items for back to school with their annual Kits for Kids drive.

These kits are distributed in cooperation with area schools and given out in early August.

Each kit will contain one of the following items and be packaged together in a gallon zip lock bag.

- Full-size shampoo
- Full-size conditioner
- Bar of soap
- Full-size deodorant
- Toothpaste
- Toothbrush
- Travel packs of tissue

Your donation of one or more of the above items will go a long way in filling the kits.

Please bring your donations to the Narthex during the following times.

- Saturday, July 16 from 6 - 7pm
- Sunday, July 17 from 9am - 12noon

Thanks in Advance For Your Donations

From the Pastor's Pen

I recently read a book called "1776" by the Pulitzer Prize winning author David McCullough. It helped me to remember some of the history of the Revolutionary War, the death and destruction that occurred, and the valor of the Colonists. Yes, sometimes freedom comes at a great price. We only need to recall the war in Ukraine, the bloodshed, the destruction, the violence, the atrocities against the citizens.

So as we celebrate Independence Day we remember not only the freedom won by the Revolutionary War, but also the freedom preserved by all the wars that have followed. We honor all the heroes who have given their lives to preserve and protect our nation's freedom, but also the freedom of every peaceful people.

In a sense, "independence" is not always a Christian virtue. Sometimes people want independence from laws, independence from responsibility, independence from stewardship of our earth, and even independence from God. As Christians, we believe that we depend on God for our life and all the things we need to sustain life. We are not meant to be "lone wolves," distancing ourselves from other people, wanting an independent lifestyle. No, we are dependent on each other, we need each other, we find fulfillment in our relationships with one another. As you celebrate Independence Day, give thanks to God that we live in a country where we enjoy freedom, but also remember that God gives us the task of caring for one another.

I would also like to look back to a celebration on July 1, the feast of the Most Precious Blood. Devotion to the Blood of Christ has always been a reminder of the life-giving sacrifice of Jesus. We who are members of the Society of the Precious Blood give special honor and recognition to this price of our salvation. I encourage you to let that devotion be a part of your prayer life. Pray also for all the members of our religious order and our ministries.

Know that my prayers are with you each day.

Fr. Michael

Someone is Watching and Wondering

I sincerely hope I do not offend anyone this weekend as I digress from my usual writings relating to our faith and focus on what we celebrate, as a nation, this weekend. Let me begin by stating that I was born and raised in the United States and except for a four year sojourn in Germany have lived in the state of Missouri my entire life. As such I was not required to apply for citizenship, discriminated against due to country of origin, race, or religion of my ancestors. I am ordinary in many ways but have shared many extraordinary experiences. I also believe in the stated principles of our countries origins although I am often frustrated how these principles seem to be selectively applied.

The second paragraph of the Declaration of Independence (July 4, 1776) reads: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.—That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed." Lofty ideals to be sure, yet even the word "Men" says something of the times and subsequent struggle for women, enslaved people, and immigrants coming to this country. After more than 200 years of history there are so many living in our country, who must fight for these unalienable rights.

The following words, written in 1787 and ratified in 1788 also reflect our ideals as a nation: "We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America."

The preamble to the U.S. Constitution is very clear regarding the role of government and unity (establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide common defense, promote general welfare, secure liberty. As I look at where we are today I wonder what has happened to these ideals of governing and living in a country secure for the present and future. The unity of our nation, which Abraham Lincoln believed in and stood for seems in the past. Dialogue and debate without division seems lost. I think as Christians we are called to rethink the role of Christ's teachings, to love and serve one another, in relationship to the ideals which were the roots of the founding of our nation — one nation, one people with liberty and justice for all.

St. Thomas, Apostle, Feast Day - July 3

St. Thomas is best known for his role in verifying the Resurrection of his Master. Thomas' unwillingness to believe that the other Apostles had seen their risen Lord on the first Easter Sunday earned him the title of "doubting Thomas."

He was a dedicated but impetuous follower of Christ. At the Last Supper, when Christ told His disciples that He was going to prepare a place for them to which they also might come because they knew both the place and the way, Thomas pleaded that they did not understand and received the beautiful assurance that Christ is the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

Mass Intentions

The custom of requesting a priest to offer the Mass for a specific intention, is a longstanding tradition in the Church. When we celebrate the Eucharist, in addition to prayers for the deceased, a particular intention may be included.

If you would like to have a Mass offered for one of your loved ones or for a special intention, please call the parish office at 816-781-4343. A small donation may be offered.

Join Our Prayer Shawl Ministry

Meetings are held twice a month on the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays from 6:30 - 8:00pm in the Room of Our Lady (Father Mike's old office) in the Resource Center.

Members of this ministry knit baptismal shawls that are presented to parents when their child is being baptized and sympathy shawls that are presented at funerals to the family members of the decedent.

Donations to purchase yarn for these shawls are always appreciated.

We welcome new members to join this group.
