Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve every one, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

Love INC is helping to assist families and children in need with basic hygiene items for back to school with their annual Kits for Kids drive.

These kits are distributed in cooperation with area schools and given out in early August.

Each kit will contain one of the following items and be packaged together in a gallon zip lock bag.

- Full-size shampoo
- Full-size conditioner
- Bar of soap
- Full-size deodorant
- Toothpaste
- Toothbrush
- Travel packs of tissue

Your donation of one or more of the above items will go a long way in filling the kits.

Please bring your donations to the Narthex during the following times next weekend.

Saturday, July 16 from 6 - 7pm

Sunday, July 17 from 9am - 12noon

Thanks in Advance For Your Donations

Cars4KC is the official vehicle donation program that benefits Catholic Charities Kansas City-Saint Joseph. No matter what condition it is in, you can send it to them while avoiding the trading/selling process as well as getting a tax deduction. All proceeds given will benefit Catholic Charities programs and services across the region.

For more information go to: Cars4KC.com

The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph is committed to combatting sexual abuse in the Church. If you are a victim of sexual abuse, or if you observe or suspect sexual abuse:

1. Call the Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.392.3738 (if the victim is currently under the age of 18), and
2. Contact your local law enforcement agency or call 911, and
3. After reporting to these civil and law enforcement authorities, report suspected sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult to the Diocesan Ombudsman, Joe Crayon, at 816.812.2500 or crayon@ombudsmankcsj.org, if the abuse involves a priest, deacon, employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph.

The Diocese has a sincere commitment to providing care and healing resources to victims of sexual abuse and their families. Please contact Whitney True-Francis, Victim Assistance Coordinator, at 816.392.0011 or true.francis@diocesekcsj.org for more information.

From the Pastor's Pen

As we continue our journey through the summer months, and with the heat of the summer continuing to shine forth, we pray that you and your families might have some time for relaxation and time together.

This weekend our Gospel story is the 'Good Samaritan' – the story that Jesus tells about helping a poor man along the road and how we all are called to serve those in need.

Our faith is a gift from God, that always challenges us to go out and be with the poor, the struggling, and those in need, so that they might know the care and the Love of Christ in their lives.

A special word of THANKS to all those in our parish who serve those in need in so many ways.

We are blessed with many folks committed to (just to name a few) a few agencies that provide help: "In As Much Ministry", St. Mary's Soup Kitchen, One City Cafe (at St. James Midtown), Bishop Sullivan Center, and Love, Inc.

There are also other agencies that folks offer their gifts of time, talent and treasure. This is what life is about – being good and faithful stewards.

As we begin a new fiscal year this month, we want to say a heartfelt THANK YOU to all who are so generous on a weekly, monthly basis in your giving to St. James, so that we can continue God's work among us.

We are Blessed that our church debt is lower than $2 million, from the $12 million cost of our new church. That is good stewardship, for sure. And it takes all of us doing our part.

It's not the amount one gives that is blessed by God, but on their faithfulness to giving. For that we are most grateful.

Just a reminder, we have wonderful opportunities planned for our young people and their families as we prepare for the Fall and Faith Formation opportunities and Religious Education programs. Be sure to register on-line.

Blessings to you and keep cool this summer!

Peace,

Fr. Mike

Retreat For Catechists and RE Volunteers

As we begin to welcome back in-person Religious Education instruction for our parish, we must recommit ourselves as teachers of the faith to renew ourselves in Christ and through Christ to be prepared to receive our children, you and families with a welcoming spirit.

Fr. Timothy will conduct a retreat for all catechists and RE volunteers in all K -12 Religious Education Programs. We'll be fed so that we can feed our children, youth and parents.

When: Saturday, August 6, 2022

Where: Social Hall

Time: 8:30 – 12:30 p.m.

A light breakfast and lunch will be provided.

Please RSVP to:
ernie.collins@stjames-liberty.org

Please add this retreat to your calendar.

Share Our Faith and Love of Christ

All are invited to attend this faith sharing series, "Sharing His Love With One Another" led by Sandy Gagnon, designed specifically for those who wish to enrich their faith and understanding of God's infinite love and mercy, and how we are each individually called to share God's gifts through our daily lives.

When: 2nd and 4th Wednesday of the month

Our next meeting is Wednesday, July 13

Time: Select either Noon-1:00pm or 6:30-8:00pm.

Where: Front conference room of the office complex at the lower level of the church.

According to Sandy, "this will be an on-going, year-round ministry. You may begin and/or end attending at any time, or just participate for a shorter time and that's okay. We will meet one another where we are as pilgrims on a journey of faith".

Someone is Watching and Wondering

I am fascinated by waves I love to sit on the shore and watch waves. Sometime they are quiet and small, almost ripples, gently caressing the shoreline. Other times they are large and violent, crashing onto the shore with great force, reshaping beaches, rocks, and cliffs. Sometimes gigantic waves travel miles inland, leaving destruction as they retreat. For me, waves provide a metaphor of my faith. There are times my faith is riding the crest of a wave, other times caught in the trough, and like the motion of all waves, my faith has cycles – up and down, crashing and forceful, or gently flowing in ripples.

Reflecting on my faith journey, the times when I felt strong in my faith, riding the top of the wave, were the times when I felt I had no control of events that were occurring; times when I was called to trust God completely. For example, when my youngest son was diagnosed with cancer, requiring immediate surgery, I knew there was nothing I could do but be present and place him in God's care. I wasn't so concerned about the surgeon's ability to remove the growth, but rather what his future would be. Would he have a full recovery, face years of treatment, or die from this insidious disease. Somehow I knew that faith/trust in God's love was my hope (whatever the outcome).

Conversely, when my life appears to be going well, when I think I am in control, faith seems to take a plunge. This is not to say I no longer believe or am ungrateful for my blessings, rather God is simply somewhere out there on standby for my next crisis. As a student of science I believe fears are based in the unknown, however, I am in awe of the reality of what is seen and unseen. I realize that knowledge is rooted in answering one question which leads to a thousand more. Faith, however, is not explained in answering questions, but rather felt in the deepest center of our being, where I know God's spirit. Faith is believing God is always with me, whether I'm on a crest or in a trough.

Fr. Ronald Rolheiser in his book Wrestling with God, writes: "Faith isn't something you ever simply achieve. . . a fait accompli. . . some days you walk on water and other days you sink like a stone." I have learned not to fear when my faith crashes like a wave on the rocks, or sinks like a stone, because I realize that is just one cycle in my waves of faith leading me closer to God.

Your Sister in Christ Jesus, Sandy Gagnon

This Week We Honor These Saints

July 11 - St. Benedict

Born in 450 Canonized in 1220

His main achievement was his "Rule of Saint Benedict", the most common and influential Rule used by monasteries and monks, more than 1,400 years after its writing.

July 14 - St. Kateri Tekakwitha

Born in 1656 Canonized in 2012

The first Native American to be recognized as a saint, she made a heroic decision to live a Christian life despite her trials and deep suffering and persecution of her faith.

July 15 - St. Bonaventure

Born in 1220 Canonized in 1482

He steered the Franciscans on a moderate and intellectual course. His theology was marked by an attempt completely to integrate faith and reason.

Eucharistic Adoration

Summertime / vacation time is here.

If you are signed up for a specific time for Eucharistic Adoration and will not be able to be there and cannot find a substitute, please contact Christy Eichler at 816-809-0821 or email Mary Hover at maryhove@gmail.com.

Military Outreach Ministry

Members of the Military Outreach Ministry will be holding a Blue Star Recognition Ceremony on August 7 in the Social Hall.

This ceremony honors individuals who are presently serving in the military.

Ann Roberts Puck, chair of this ministry is seeking names and contact information of current military members.

If you have a family member in the military, please contact Ann at 816-469-0271 or annroberts977@gmail.com

SELLING HOPE GIFT CARDS AFTER 5PM SATURDAY MASS

We've had requests to sell HOPE cards after the 5pm Saturday Mass. We would like to, but to do so would require volunteers to sell them.

CAN YOU HELP?

If you can volunteer or want more information, contact Ernie Collins (x208) or Jeanne Greenwald (x200) in the parish office.

Angels Attic Thrift Store 90 Volunteers Needed

Angels Attic Thrift store located at 6970 N. Broadway is in desperate need of volunteers (no experience necessary) who can give 2 hours a month or 2 hours a week or more as a volunteer.

We are in need of 90-100 volunteers, who can work flexible days and flexible hours. 90% of all profits go to help Catholic schools in the Northland.

Angels Attic was able to give away over $6,000 in 2021 to Catholic education. We hope to see this number double or triple this year.

If you can volunteer or need more information, please call Krisa at 816-915-1740
