From the Pastor's Pen

Well, what a week – the Chief's magnificent win on Sunday evening to become the Super Bowl Champions; the excitement and energy (and a great parade) all over the city and larger community!! We are so very grateful for Andy Reid and Patrick Mahomes, and a great Chiefs team for their outstanding performance this year! God is SO VERY GOOD!

This weekend in the Scriptures we are challenged to love one another as God loves us! That's a tremendous challenge, but just like the Chiefs had to work together as a team to accomplish their Super Bowl win, may we work together to live out God's message here in our community.

This week we celebrate Ash Wednesday, the beginning of the Lenten season. Masses and Distribution of Ashes are offered throughout the day – the times are on page 2 in the bulletin. Just a reminder, the 8:15am Mass on Ash Wednesday morning will be a School Mass. All are welcome, but just want to let you know it will be a FULL crowd at 8:15am.

This week we also begin Stations of the Cross on Friday evenings at 5:30pm in English, followed by Stations in Spanish, that will run through the Lenten season.

We also have our first Fish Fry this Friday. We're grateful to our Knights of Columbus for their tremendous efforts in providing a delicious meal that welcomes the larger community to join us in this Lenten treat! Come and join us – dine in or take out/drive-thru will be available.

We lift up our Catechumens and Candidates, as this Lenten season is a 'retreat' time for them as they journey toward the Easter sacraments. Next weekend, on Saturday evening Feb. 25, they will attend the Rite of Election at the Cathedral and meet Bishop Johnston. Following that ceremony, our 'catechumens' (those preparing for Baptism) are called 'the elect', and we pray with them and for them during this Lenten season!

May each of us and our families take advantage of these 40 days of Lent, whether it's through praying together as a family, or being part of the '40 Days 40 Note's' opportunity that Ashlie Hand shared with us last weekend. Details are on page 4 in the bulletin.

Blessings to you and your family, and as we hold on to the memories of this 'Chiefs season', may we continue the good work that God has begun among us and live out God's work during these upcoming days of Lent.

Peace, Fr. Mike

40 DAYS
40 Letters of hope

St. James Lenten Prayer Warriors | join today
ashliehand622@gmail.com

40 Days - 40 Letters of Hope Lenten Ministry

St. James' Prayer Warriors are back for Lent 2023, now in our fifth year.

Starting on Ash Wednesday, Prayer Warriors will receive an email each day with a new Prayer Recipient. Prayer Warriors are asked to mail a note of prayer, support and hope to each Prayer Recipient assigned to them. The goal is for each Prayer Recipient to receive a note from a different Prayer Warrior each day during Lent.

Prayer Warrior sign ups will be available in the Parish Hall after Masses this weekend, or you may sign up and send questions by email to Ashlie Hand: ashliehand622@gmail.com. Is there someone on your prayer list that you'd like us to write to? Please email the recipient's name, mailing address and prayer request to Ashlie Hand:

ashliehand622@gmail.com.

You do not have to be a Prayer Warrior to submit a prayer request or Prayer Recipient. Sign ups and prayer requests are due no later than February 21.

Hope Gift Cards Now Available After Saturday 5pm Mass starting March 4th!

Beginning on Saturday, March 4th, we will have HOPE gift cards available after the 5pm Masses! They will be sold at a table in the Gathering Space for this purpose on Saturdays only.

Sunday morning HOPE cards will continue to be sold in the Parish Hall.

Sales of HOPE cards help support our parish financially without any cost to you. You purchase the cards for the stores that you normally shop at, and the merchant passes the savings on to our parish. It's a great way to help support the many good things that happen at St. James!

If you would be willing to sell the HOPE cards after a Mass, please contact Jeanne Greenwald at stjamesoffice-stjames-liberty.org or 816/781-4343 X200.

Someone is Watching and Wondering

There are those who say that time is our most precious commodity and perhaps we are all living on borrowed time. The older I get, the more this statement rings true.

Time seems to pass too quickly, yet there also seems to be so much left for me to do. In thinking about time I realize that time is a gift of love freely given by God. As such, no matter how I count time, in seconds, minutes, hours, days, weeks, months, years, etc., I also thank God for this sacred gift. As families we mark time by celebrating special events (birthdays, anniversaries, holidays and such). As Catholics we set aside and mark specific times for celebrating the saving work of God, while still recognizing that all time is God's time. At the Easter Vigil the priest blesses the Paschal candle with the words: "Christ yesterday and today, the beginning and the end, the Alpha and Omega; all time belongs to him." However, especially when we participate in liturgical celebrations, we are called to leave the time which we mark with clocks (kronos) and to enter Kairos or God's "eternal now."

This Wednesday we leave Ordinary time (ordinal/ counted time, which begins each Sunday as the time set aside for the sacred liturgical celebration of our call to follow Jesus as his disciples) and as we receive ashes we enter the season of Lent. Lent is designated as a 40-day period of conversion, to turn away from sinful ways and reorient ourselves toward Jesus, in preparation for celebrating the Easter Vigil. The road to conversion turns our attention to intense prayer, fasting, alms-giving, and self-discernment which forces us to recognize those traits that prevent us from a fuller relationship with Christ Jesus.

As I recognize that I live on borrowed time, my Lenten journey gives me pause to reflect on the precious gift of each blessed moment with God. For me, Lent is a time of reawakening to God's call, for seeking wisdom, for rebuilding my understanding of justice, as well as a time to embrace and live in God's mercy and love. During Lent I believe God is calling me to give up yet more of my ego and self-centeredness and replace these with a new self-awareness of what it truly means to be a disciple of Christ Jesus.

Your Sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

A Lenten Gift For You

We will be offering a Lenten gift to all Parishioner households.

The book, "Jesus and the Jewish Roots of the Eucharist" is a wonderful explanation of the importance of the Eucharist to our faith as Catholics.

We hope to have them by Ash Wednesday or the First Sunday of Lent to share with everyone.

Hard to believe, but the season of Lent begins this coming Wednesday with Ash Wednesday. This day is so important to the start of Lent and our preparation for the coming Passion of Holy Week and Resurrection of Christ.

The ceremony of Ash Wednesday dates back to at least the 8th century. The ashes that are used each year are made by burning the palms used on Palm Sunday of the previous year and are sprinkled with holy water and fumigated with incense.

In the Old Testament times, ashes were used to express sorrow for sin. This visible sign represented an interior conversion.

Lent is a special time when we are to realize that life is passing quickly and we need to focus on turning away from sin and towards God. The ashes remind us that we are mortal beings and it is to dirt that our bodies will return. The ashes not only signify death but victory over death as the ashes that our bodies will become after we die will be re-formed into a resurrected body when Christ comes again in glory.

Receiving ashes on Ash Wednesday is a beautiful symbol that when we participate in the glorious resurrection of Christ.

A Lenten Opportunity Come to "THE CHOSEN" Watch Party Every Wednesday - 10:00am

All are invited and welcome to join the "Watch Party" on Wednesdays at 10:00am in the AV Conference Room (lower level of the church).

Beginning Ash Wednesday, February 22, we will be starting the CHOSEN series (a series following Christ's public ministry) from the beginning.

As we watch each episode, we will discuss it and how we are chosen today to follow Him and how we are to go out and preach the gospel.

Come join us. No registration needed, just come when you can.
