From the Pastor's Pen

This weekend we celebrate the Second Sunday of Lent, and the Gospel story is always the 'Transfiguration of Jesus'. This is the story of our mural in church, which centers on the disciples, who confused and struggling to follow Jesus, understood that He was the Messiah with the appearance of the great figures of the Hebrew Scriptures – the presence of Moses and Elijah, and the voice of God from heaven, saying 'This is my Beloved Son, listen to Him'.

That's what we reflect upon this Lenten season. Our beautiful mural reminds us of God's presence among us and the presence of the three churches, where we have gathered over the years as a parish family, and the great of Santiago de Compostello, where St. James the Apostle is buried. That church is a tremendous place of pilgrimage, and we call upon the apostles to lead and guide us as a parish community.

A reminder that our Knights of Columbus are hosting their second Fish Fry, on Friday evening, March 10th. All are welcome to come and enjoy a delicious fish dinner. This is a great time to welcome folks from the larger community to our parish family.

The St. Joseph Table is coming in a couple weeks, on Saturday and Sunday, March 18 and 19. This tradition celebrates the presence of St. Joseph among us and how he led the people of Italy in the midst of a famine. The beautiful table, decorated in his honor will be on display and a pasta dinner served on Saturday, from 11am-7pm. On Sunday morning after the 8am Mass until noon, complimentary coffee and desserts will be served and cannoli and cookies will be available for purchase.

This will take place in the Social Hall. There is no charge for attending the dinner, but freewill donations are encouraged. All are welcome, and all proceeds go to benefit the poor.

Next weekend, Nathan Stanley will speak to us before each Mass. Nathan, who grew up in Liberty and attended St. James, is a FOCUS minister, whose ministry is dedicated to young people on college campuses. He will be here asking for funds to help him continue this tremendous ministry. Thanks in advance for your generosity.

Blessings to you and your family as we journey through this Lenten season.

Peace,

Fr. Mike

Are you caring for someone with dementia? Do you have a close friend or family member with dementia?

If so, we invite you to join our Support Group. At these meetings we usually watch a short video on dementia. We learn how to have successful and rewarding interactions and what to avoid saying or doing that might trigger a negative response. Then we take turns sharing our struggles and successes of the past month. We pray together, share information and offer support to one another.

If this sounds like something you would find helpful please come and join us. If you have any questions you can call my number listed below.

Nathan Stanley, FOCUS missionary, will be speaking at all Masses this weekend to update us on his mission work with FOCUS. Nathan grew up and was confirmed at St. James. Nathan and his family currently live outside Denver, Colorado, where he serves as one of the senior FOCUS leaders.

He will update our parish on his continued mission work with FOCUS and share how we can continue supporting him and his family.

Someone is Watching and Wondering

I was not raised in the Roman Catholic church; I learned about God and Jesus in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). There are three pictures from my time as a Protestant which are very dear to me: Jesus welcoming the children, Jesus knocking at the door, and Jesus praying in the Garden of Gethsemane. I find it interesting that this picture of Jesus praying reflects three of the postures Christians use during prayer; kneeling (a sign of bending to the will of God, humility, and penance), clasping hands, and lifting our eyes to the heavens. During Lent we are also called to focus on our prayer life. There is no greater prayer of the church than the Mass. From the opening prayer to the closing prayer, the Mass is one continual offering to God, in which the passion of Jesus is made present. I believe, therefore, that any focus, enrichment, of renewed dedication on personal prayer must emanate from our communal celebration of the Mass.

We both begin and end the Mass with the Sign of the Cross as a reminder that we place our hope in the Lord, ask for God's blessing (as we enter into prayer and leave to do God's work), and remember our baptismal promises. We sit to hear the word of God proclaimed, we stand for the Gospel, and we kneel for the Eucharistic prayer. From beginning to end, we join in song for the processional, the Gloria, the responsorial psalm, the Gospel acclamation, as our gifts are brought to the altar, the Sanctus, the mystery of faith, the great Amen, sometimes the Lord's prayer, the Lamb of God, as we process to communion, and at the closing of the Mass. What better way to attend to the call of the Second Vatican Council for full-active participation in the Mass than to raise our voices together in song. St. Augustine is quoted as saying, "Those who sing, pray twice. Whenever the priest prays for us throughout the Mass, he raises his arms in the orans position, gathering our prayers together as one, which he lifts up to God with one voice."

There is also a time for silence during the Mass, especially after all have received the Body and Blood of Jesus, a time to reflect on God's grace and transformation poured into us from being fed at the Lord's table. I believe that my personal prayer is enriched each time I participate in the Mass, and for Lent my desire is to be fully present and pray for all God's people.

Your Sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

Our next fish fry is this Friday, March 10

Last Saturday evening February 25, our St. James Catechumens and Candidates celebrated the Rite of Election with Bishop James Johnston at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception.

During this Liturgy the Catechumens declared their intention to be among the Elect, those chosen by God to receive the Sacraments of Initiation, and the Candidates declared their desire to continue in the faith, in full communion with the Catholic Church.

Not pictured are candidates Mason Brock Crouch, Sarah Crouch, and Denise Westrem and Catechumens Jordan Belcher and Mason Ryan Crouch.

Please pray for these our brothers and sisters as they continue their journey through Lent, to reception of the Initiation Sacraments at the Easter Vigil.

As a reminder, anyone interested in becoming Catholic and receiving the Sacraments of Initiation are asked to contact me anytime as our RCIA is ongoing and year-round. All are welcome.

Join Us In Prayer Rosary For Healing Thursdays at 6:30pm

Did you know that there are many in our parish who are struggling with serious health issues? Some are on our prayer chain. And then, there are others we don't know about - they prefer to keep their health issues private.

We invite all to become "prayer warriors" and join us every Thursday at 6:30pm in the church as we pray the rosary for all those who are in need of healing prayer.

The prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well. James 5:15
