From the Pastor's Pen

This weekend we celebrate The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, also known as the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, which translates from Latin to "Body of Christ." At its core the solemnity is a celebration of the belief in the Eucharist as the Real Presence of the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ.

The Eucharist is so very central to our Catholic faith and we are asked to concentrate on the gift of the Eucharist, and how it forms and shapes our lives.

Jesus gives us the gift of the Eucharist and we are called to live out Jesus' command, 'Do This in Memory of Me'. May we be Eucharist for one another, just as Jesus gave of His Life, so that we might have Life, through the gift of His Body and Blood.

The word "Eucharist" means Thanksgiving. May we always be grateful for all God's gifts.

And a special thanks to all who are such good and faithful stewards of God's gifts by recognizing and sharing the gifts of time, talent and treasure.

This is what strengthens the gift of our Parish family to care for each other and be there for individuals and families in time of need. May we continue to be good and faithful stewards of all God's gifts.

As we journey through these summer months, may we appreciate the gift of faith and the gift of family, amidst the hecticness of life.

Peace,
Fr. Mike

Someone is Watching and Wondering

The Second Vatican Council's document on the Sacred Liturgy described the Eucharist as the height and summit of the Mass; the living presence of Christ in His body and blood. Surprisingly there are many Roman Catholics who do not believe in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist, yet today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ (previously, Corpus Christi). Although there are many questions, the gospel is very clear: “Jesus said . . . ‘I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever, and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world . . . Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me’ ” (John: 6:51-57). Many found these words of Jesus too troubling, and turned away. Are we still turning from his teachings? St. Paul writes to the Corinthians: “Brothers and sisters: the cup of blessing that we bless is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ?” (1 Cor10:16-17a). Like the early Christians are we still confused or put off by these teachings? Do we question His real presence?

To my way of thinking, God sends the Holy Spirit to change the bread and wine into the body and blood of Jesus, so that we who receive this gift may also be transformed; living our baptismal promises to become “little Christs,” Christ Jesus' present in the world. As we receive the body and blood, so we become part of the “body of Christ.” I do not know or understand the workings of God, but I do know that without spiritual nourishment, without receiving the body and blood of Jesus each week, I fail in my promise to bring Jesus to others; I fail in serving as Jesus served; I fail in living the fullness of my humanity.

Your Sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

The Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus
Friday, June 16

Although not a Holy Day of Obligation, the Feast of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus is an important liturgical day in the Catholic Church.

Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus goes back at least to the 11th century, but through the 16th century, it remained a private devotion, often tied to devotion to the Five Wounds of Christ.

The first feast of the Sacred Heart was celebrated on August 31, 1670, in Rennes, France, through the efforts of Fr. Jean Eudes (1602-1680). From Rennes, the devotion spread, but it took the visions of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque (1647-1690) for the devotion to become universal.

In all of these visions, in which Jesus appeared to St. Margaret Mary, the Sacred Heart of Jesus played a central role. The "great apparition," which took place on June 16, 1675, during the octave of the Feast of Corpus Christi, is the source of the modern Feast of the Sacred Heart. In that vision, Christ asked St. Margaret Mary to request that the Feast of the Sacred Heart be celebrated on the Friday after the octave (or eighth day) of the Feast of Corpus Christi, in reparation for the ingratitude of men for the sacrifice that Christ had made for them.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus represents not simply His physical heart but His love for all mankind.

The devotion became quite popular after St. Margaret Mary's death in 1690, but, because the Church initially had doubts about the validity of St. Margaret Mary's visions, it wasn't until 1765 that the feast was celebrated officially in France. Almost 100 years later, in 1856, Pope Pius IX, at the request of the French bishops, extended the feast to the universal Church. It is celebrated on the day requested by our Lord-the Friday after the octave of Corpus Christi (The Body and Blood of Christ), or 19 days after Pentecost Sunday.

The Memorial of the Sacred Heart of Mary commemorates the joys and sorrows of the Mother of God, her virtues and perfections, her love for God and her Divine Son and her compassionate love for mankind.

In 1944, Pope Pius XII instituted this feast for the whole Church, so as to obtain by her intercession "peace among nations, freedom for the Church, the conversion of sinners, the love of purity and the practice of virtue."

*O Mary, conceived without sin,

Join Us In Prayer Rosary For Healing Thursdays at 6:30pm

Did you know that there are many in our parish who are struggling with serious health issues? Some are on our prayer chain. And then, there are others we don't know about - they prefer to keep their health issues private.

We invite all to become "prayer warriors" and join us every Thursday at 6:30pm in the church as we pray the rosary for all those who are in need of healing prayer.

The prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well. James 5:15
