From the Pastor's Pen

The North Pole. The South Pole. Polar opposites. So we have the word "polarization" to mean two sides of an issue that seem to be at opposite extremes. There is a lot of talk today about polarization in the world, in our country, in our church and even within parishes. In our country today we find deepening divisions about gun control, immigration, abortion, euthanasia, politics, jerrymandering, and a host of other issues. It all seems rather futile.

Is there a solution? The divisions are so deep that it sometimes seems hopeless. Where do we start? With the teachings of Jesus. With the authentic practice of our faith. "Love one another," Jesus says, "as I have loved you." If we truly love one another, then we work to end divisions and hostility. We seek mutual respect, seeing dignity in each person as a reflection of the presence of Jesus.

We certainly will not agree on all positions, but respect means a willingness to listen without making negative judgments. There are, of course, certain beliefs or attitudes that we cannot accept: practicing discrimination, endorsing violence, disregard for the value and dignity of every human life, sexual promiscuity, deceit and dishonesty. But there are other issues about which there can be legitimate disagreement.

Our focus should be on how we live together as a Church and as a parish. We must strive to see areas of polarization and be committed to overcoming all that divides us into opposing camps. We honor the doctrines of the Church and our traditions. We honor the teachings of the Second Vatican Council. Yet we recognize that there are issues, ways of worship, ways of practicing our faith can be open to different actions, interpretations, and styles. Our coming together begins with dialogue, respectful listening, truthful information, careful analysis, not seeing others as threats but as fellow sojourners. "Love one another, as I have loved you" will be our guide, words that are the foundation of our lives as Church and community.

My prayers are with you each day,

Fr. Michael

Someone is Watching and Wondering

"Why can't you be like other girls? Do you always have to be so different?" My first memory of these words from my mother, are from when I was five or six. I didn't have an answer then, but later would respond:

"That's how God made me," as I raised my left hand. I was a "Tomboy" who would rather play baseball, wear jeans, and help my dad work on our cars than wear dresses (even though our school dress code required girls to wear dresses), play with doll houses, and read about movie stars. I haven't changed much in nearly 70 years, however, I do enjoy cooking, needlework, books, art, music, and dressing-up for special occasions. I also defer to professional mechanics now.

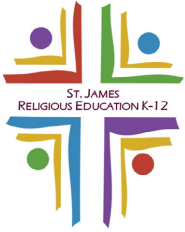

Thinking about my personhood, I was recently intrigued by an article which appeared in National Catholic Reporter entitled Is There Such a Thing as WOKE Saints, featuring this picture entitled "Cloud of Witnesses" (clockwise from top left are St. Francis deSales, St. Thérèse of Lisieux, Nicholas Black Elk, Fr. Augustus Tolton, Dorothy Day, and Thea Bowman), by Br. Mickey O'Neill McGarth, Oblate of St. Francis de-Sales. Br. Mickey is an artist, writer, and speaker. He has been featured in St. Anthony Messenger, USA

Today, America magazine, and the USCCB where he designed posters for Catechetical Sunday, Home Missions Appeal, and National Migration Week. Reading this article, also awakened my interest to understand the term WOKE.

Woke is used in place of woken (past participle of wake) as a synonym for awake. Although it is unknown when this term became a metaphor for political engagement and activism, an early example in the USA was a paramilitary youth organization, the Wide Awakes, formed in Hartford, Connecticut in 1860 to support the presidential candidate, Abraham Lincoln. This term, however, brought to my mind a much earlier voice who calls each of us to "Be watchful, be alert [awake - woke], you do not know when the time will come" (Mark 13:33). Life is finite and no one knows when our earthly life will end. What I know, however, is that every day Jesus calls me to be alert, be aware, be woke to injustice, bullying, dehumanization, rationalizations which objective groups or individuals, my self-centered ego, and actions which hurt rather than help. Woke is really rather a simple term to follow Jesus' call rather than a derogatory term to demean others while justifying my lack of awareness and compassion. I hope I am awake/woke.

Your Sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

July - The Month Of The Most Precious Blood Of Our Lord

Steubenville 2023

Our youth had an amazing weekend at the Steubenville Conference! The theme of the weekend was "Refuge" and the talks focused on finding refuge in God instead of the things society tells us to seek refuge in. We were able to hear from some amazing speakers, including Sarah Swafford, Sr. Josephine Garrett, and of course, Fr. Mike Schmitz! Some of our youth will be sharing their experiences on Sunday, July 23 during coffee and donuts - we hope to see you there!

Special thanks to those who made this trip possible: The Respect Life Group, who provided our Friday lunch, the Do-Dads who provided funds for our Sunday lunch, the Legion of Mary for leading us in a Rosary prior to our departure and for their gifts of Rosaries and Miraculous Medals to our group, the Knights of Columbus, who provided items/funds for our burrito fundraiser back in December, and to the countless parishioners who supported our fundraisers!

Also, thank you to our chaperones: Kimberly Bartlett, Larry Donnici, Chris Fernandez, Jennifer Fernandez, and Matt Maggi.

Stewardship Ideas for July

- Invite a single friend over for a meal.
- Attend an extra Mass on a weekday this month.
- Abstain from something you like – meat, a latte, a cold drink – and save the money for a charity.
- Take your rosary with you for an early morning walk.
- Recycle more.
- Say a daily prayer for one of the world’s trouble spots.
- Turn off the TV, phone, and computer, and spend an hour devoted to someone you love.
- Surprise an old friend with a phone call.
- Buy or pick a flower for someone without a “reason.”
- Take your family to a farmers’ market if in season.
- Stop for a moment during your busy day and enjoy an ice cream cone or other favorite treat.
- If you hear a great homily, tell the homilist.
- Splurge on some produce and buy enough to share with someone in need.
- See if you can go one day without complaining.
- On occasion, turn your prayer before meals into a spontaneous prayer of thanks, in your own words.
- Send an thank you note for a small favor.
- If you spot a neighbor in the yard, stop for a brief chat.
- When standing in the store checkout line, let someone let someone with fewer items go ahead of you.
- Send an thank you note for a small favor.
- Sing – or sing louder – at Mass.

St. Mary Magdalene Feast Day July 22

St. Mary Magdalene is one of the greatest saints of the Bible and a legendary example of God's mercy and grace.

The precise dates of her birth and death are unknown, but we do know she was present with Christ during his public ministry, death and resurrection. She is mentioned at least a dozen times in the Gospels.

She is the patroness of converts, repentant sinners, sexual temptation, pharmacists, tanners and women, and many other places and causes.

"God will meet you where you are in order to take you where he wants you to go."

Parish Religious Education

“Camino de Santiago” Post Confirmation Group

This group will meet several times this summer as follows:

- July 16th: 6-7:30pm Camino
- August 10th: 6:3-7:30pm Adoration
- August 20th: Camino social

COUNSELING / SPIRITUAL DIRECTION

In addition to the many life stressors, the excessive heat of summer can stress us out. If you want to explore ways to manage stress more effectively, consider counseling.

Fr. Garry Richmeier is a Licensed Professional Marriage and Family Therapist, offering family, marital, and individual counseling, as well as Spiritual Direction. He has offices in Liberty and midtown Kansas City, and takes donations in lieu of set fees.

Join Us In Prayer Rosary For Healing Thursdays at 6:30pm

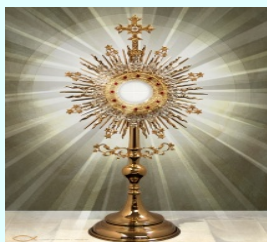

Did you know that there are many in our parish who are struggling with serious health issues? Some are on our prayer chain. And then, there are others we don't know about - they prefer to keep their health issues private.

We invite all to become "prayer warriors" and join us every Thursday at 6:30pm in the church as we pray the rosary for all those who are in need of healing prayer.

The prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well. James 5:15

Eucharistic Adoration

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament every Thursday from 9:00am until 9:00pm in the Chapel.
Come and spend some time with Jesus.

Please notify us to remove your name from our prayer lists when it is time.
In respect of HIPAA we will add names to the prayer list only by request of the person or immediate family.
