From the Pastor's Pen

As we journey through the month of October, we are grateful for the beautiful Fall weather and the changing colors of the season.

Our programs are underway, so we ask for your continued prayers for all those journeying to a deeper realization of God's presence in their lives.

Our RE program is going very well. We are always in need of more parents and adults who would help guide our young people on Sunday mornings.

So, please consider sharing your gifts of time and talent, and let Stephanie, our RE coordinator, know and help to continue the quality of our Sunday morning program.

Our 'Grief Group' begins this Monday, October 16, from 4-5:30 pm, in the Parish Hall (lower level of the Church). All who have experienced loss are invited, and if you know of anyone needing support, whether they belong to our parish or not, please invite them. We have so many individuals and families who have experienced loss over the past few years, and we want them to know they are not alone in their grief.

This month, we begin our ACA drive to support the work of the Diocese.

The 'Annual Catholic Appeal' is an annual appeal to help support the work of Bishop Johnston and our Diocesan offices, that in turn support the work of our parishes.

Each parish is allocated to collect 3% of our annual income. So, we invite folks to be generous. If a parish doesn't raise that amount, then the parish is responsible for the amount. So, once again, we ask for everyone's generosity so that this does not become a burden to our parish community.

Our parish community has always been generous when there is a need, so we are grateful for your continued generosity.

May God's Blessings be with you and your families.

Peace,

Fr. Mike

Military Outreach Ministry Honoring the Deployed

This weekend, the St. James Military Outreach Ministry will be distributing flyers highlighting a Donation Drive to honor our currently deployed members of the military.

The flyer requests donations of items such as beef jerky, Slim Jims, water flavor packets and more that will be sent to the deployed.

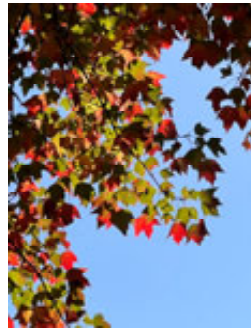

Bring your donations to the St. Christopher Room in the Resource Center from October 16 - 24

Ministry members will pack and ship the items so that they will be received on or near October 26, the National Day of the Deployed.

The National Day of the Deployed annually honors the United States military personnel deployed around the globe. The designation recognizes all of the brave military personnel who have been deployed, are sacrificing, or have sacrificed their lives to defend our country.

Someone is Watching and Wondering

As I write these words, I think Fall has finally arrived. The days are getting shorter and the nights are cooler. Looking outside I find spectacular colors appearing on the trees surrounding my house, and plants displaying the beautiful blooms. For me, not only is Fall a time to enjoy nature's beauty, it is also a time to reflect and prepare:

reflect on the past, present and future. The past is filled with blessings, accomplishments, and yes, failures. Each new day and every sunrise reminds me of God's grace, and God's presence as I go about routine, ordinary tasks. Fall is a time to reflect on future ways in which I might love God more completely, put God first ahead of my wants and desires, follow in the servant footsteps of Jesus.

Fall is also a time of preparation; planting bulbs, trimming dead stalks, cleaning gardens and raking leaves. More importantly, I believe this is how I prepare to receive God with a renewed understanding and openness. One of the ways I work toward this goal is to spend time each day meditating on these simple words: "Be still and know that I am God" (Psalm 46:10). As I pray, throughout the day, I am reminded just to be with God; to rest in God's presence; to calm myself; to behold the works of God. I feel God is telling me to pay attention, quiet all that is swirling around in my mind, stop fighting, allow God to be my stronghold and my strength. I think God is asking me to let go of hurts, guilt, frustrations, and my need to control every aspect of my life. God is saying be patient, trust, receive Shalom. When the earth shakes, the skies darken and rumble, storms seem relentless, and wildfires ravage, God is with me. When our world seems in chaos, God offers understanding and peace, stillness and rest in God's presence.

I also think God is telling me it is okay to simply BE. Be the person God gifted me to be. Be humble, be a seeker, be trustworthy, and willing to serve. Let God be God; glory in my humanness. Thank God for my uniqueness, for my abilities, for the charisms I receive. I think God is telling me to accept who I am, a beloved child, perhaps even a messenger of God's word; a servant, willing to go wherever I am called; to discern, as I am called by the Spirit, what actions I should take; knowing always that I am never alone. God is with me, all ways, everywhere, in all things.

Where you feel God's presence isn't important. In fact, how we know and rest in God is as unique as each leaf, with its fall colors. Simply Be with, and Know God!

Your Sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

St. Luke Feast Day October 18

Luke, the writer of the Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles, has been identified with St. Paul's "Luke, the beloved physician". We know few other facts about Luke's life from Scripture and from early Church historians.

It is believed that Luke was born a Greek and a Gentile. According to early Church historians Luke was born at Antioch in Syria.

The Acts of the Apostles follows the trail of Luke's Christian ministry. We know nothing about his conversion but looking at the language of Acts we can see where he joined Saint Paul.

Luke is the loyal comrade who stays with Paul when he is imprisoned in Rome about the year 61. After everyone else deserts Paul in his final imprisonment and sufferings, it is Luke who remains with Paul to the end: "Only Luke is with me"

Reading Luke's gospel gives a good idea of his character as one who loved the poor, who wanted the door to God's kingdom opened to all, who respected women, and who saw hope in God's mercy for everyone.

The reports of Luke's life after Paul's death are conflicting. Some early writers claim he was martyred, others say he lived a long life. Some say that he preached in Greece, others in Gaul. The earliest tradition we have says that he died at 84 Boeotia after settling in Greece to write his Gospel.

PreK- 5

We are so grateful for the beautiful weather we have been having as it has allowed the children of many classes the opportunity to take their learning outside the past couple of weekends. From PreK and up, they have visited the St. James Prayer Garden, the playground, found leaves for crafts, and ventured over to the church to learn more about Baptism. Be sure to ask your child (ren) about their outdoor learning and activities.

Our next class is 10/15 from 9:10-10:20.

Middle School:

We begin our session with a fun group activity in the social hall before breaking into classes. Sixth grade spent time learning about the "anatomy" of the Bible, while seventh grade had activities for Circle of Grace and our 8th grade class began discussions about the church, saints, and preparing for Confirmation next year. We finished with an open gym.

Our next class is Sunday, 10/22 from 6-7:30pm.

1st Sacraments:

Parents and children should continue to work through the Blessed First Reconciliation book. If you have not received yours yet, please reach out to Stephanie.

First Reconciliation will be offered in November.

If you don't stand for something, you'll fall for anything. Stand up and speak out for life. One man or woman with courage can have a positive effect on the future of our nation. Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me. (Matthew 25:40) What can I do in my daily life to respect life?

- Visit the elderly in local nursing homes. Create cards or write little notes to those in nursing homes and hand deliver if possible.
- Pray a Rosary or Novena for 9 consecutive days to pray for an end to threats against human life.
- Grab every possible opportunity to SPEAK UP for the unborn, handicapped, elderly...all those who are unable to defend themselves.
