From the Pastor's Pen

This weekend we come to the end of October, with the weather changing into late Fall, November cold waves, and Halloween on our doorstep, we prepare to celebrate the Feast of All Saints on Wednesday, November 1st.

Masses will be at 6:30am, 8:15am & 7pm. Come and celebrate with us all our loved ones who have gone before us!

This weekend we are grateful to the Knights of Columbus, and on this 5th Sunday of the month, we are especially grateful for their delicious burritos which are available this Sunday morning from 7:30 to noon in the Parish Hall, in front of the church or drive through and pick up.

In the month of November, we also remember our beloved dead – those who have gone before us – may they know the Peace of God's Kingdom and may their loved ones be comforted with God's grace and strength.

Thanks to all who have already and those who plan to support the ACA – the Annual Catholic Appeal to support the work of our Diocese.

Your generosity goes to benefit the work of our Diocesan offices which support our parishes throughout the Diocese and helps fund the work of Catholic Charities that serves the poor and needy in so many ways within the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph.

Let us continue to pray for all who are preparing for reception of sacraments in the Catholic faith – our catechumens and candidates – whose number continues to grow each week. We are excited for these individuals who want a deeper relationship with our parish community.

We also pray for our young people, our teens preparing for Confirmation, and our second graders who are preparing for the sacrament of Reconciliation the end of November, and First Holy Communion after Easter.

All these individuals are preparing for sacraments, and we want them to know they are being remembered and prayed for by our parish community.

Happy Halloween and All Saints Day!

Peace,

Fr. Mike

Someone is Watching and Wondering

As we approach the Feast of All Saints, I am reminded of living saints, those devote faith filled individuals who affect the lives of so many others, following the teachings of Christ Jesus. Two such individuals are St. Joseph of Carondelet Srs. Rosemary Flanigan and Barbara Moore. The photographs above were taken 55 years apart, the black and white during the March on Selma, Alabama in 1965 and the later during a presentation by these women commemorating their courageous stand for civil rights. (Recent photo appeared in the Global Sisters Report, Feb 2020 — Sarah Baker). I do not know Sr. Barbara personally, but Sr. Rosemary (now age 96, officially retired, and residing at the Nazareth Living Center in St. Louis), is a dear friend and mentor. In speaking of their memories of 1965, they believe the year marked a turning point in U.S. sisters engagement in the civil rights movement and fight for social justice.

Rosemary was born in Kansas City and became Sr. Thomas Marquerite, CSJ in 1948. She earned a bachelor's degree in philosophy in 1947, a master's in 1956 and a doctorate in 1964. She was an educator for 42 years, first in elementary education and later as a professor at Avila and Rockhurst University. Rosemary retired from Rockhurst in 1992 only to begin an 18 year career with the Center for Practical Bioethics, where she served as the director of the "Ethics development and Education Committee. During these years she continued to be an advocate for social justice, through education and involvement with various groups. I know there are more than a few individuals in our diocese, priests and laity alike, who were challenged and influenced by this amazing women. Her involvement with the Center for Practical Bioethics brought into question many challenging issues surrounding the dignity of every human being when making medical decisions. I have personally benefited greatly from our discussions and her insights into the sacredness of every life, the sacredness of all God's creation, and how I must live a life of truth, love, and stewardship. Sr. Rosemary is one of many living saints who have blessed my life.

Who are those people in your life? Remember them in prayer. I know they are praying for you.

Your Sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

The Advent Giving Tree Kicks Off Next Weekend

We will be kicking off the Advent Giving Tree, a well-loved St. James Parish ministry, the first weekend in November. Through this ministry, our parish has provided incredible support over the years to various charitable organizations, including our own parish, to help families and individuals in need. Those needs are always present but are often more evident during the holiday season.

This year we are dedicating our Advent Giving Tree to Linda and Rocky Gross. Linda was an integral part of the Advent Giving Tree for many years, and she and Rocky were selfless and constant in their efforts to assist the poor and needy. We particularly want to remember them during this year's Advent Giving Tree campaign.

We will use your cash donations to purchase HOPE program gift cards, which we will distribute to nine charitable organizations within the metro area. Over the coming weeks, bulletins will highlight these organizations and describe how they use our donations. Last year, through your generosity to the Advent Giving Tree, we were able to provide help to at least 77 families and nearly 300 individuals, including children, expectant mothers, nursing home residents, and others.

We will collect donations at all Masses through December 3. You can also drop off or mail your donations to the Parish Office. We are blessed with a very caring and generous parish, and with your support, we will continue to provide tremendous help - and hope - to those in need.

Stewardship of Treasure

I wanted to share our 1st quarter financials with everyone ~ St. James-Liberty.

1st Quarter

July 1 - September 30

Operating Income (actual):	$ 905,257
Expenses Paid (actual):	($ 875,375)

New Church Mortgage

Loan Balance	$ 639,682.37

Out of curiosity, I looked back at some of the previous bulletin notes. I found this from the Fall of 2016:

"... August was looking so tight and then we get to last Wed. (Aug. 31), the multiplying of the loaves. We were able to pay all our bills and had $9,991 in the bank to start Sept.

I know that may not sound like a lot, but folks - that is a lot. THANK YOU! Because of your dedication, financial accountability, and awareness to our parish, we have made the last 8 months with all our bills paid. The church runs on a cash based / zero based balanced budget. It has been many many years since we have achieved that kind of fiscal responsibility. So again, THANK YOU! I am so proud of our parish. Have we come a long way or what!"

As Fr. Mike shared this past weekend on the anniversary of our dedication, we have under $600,000 left on our mortgage with the Oct. payment made. This is truly incredible! We continue to support other ministries and the needs of others; we pay our monthly bills; we have had maintenance that needed to be completed; AND we have maintained our commitment to our Parish mortgage. Job well done good and faithful servants.

If you have any questions and/or concerns about any financial numbers, please feel free to contact me, Katie in the Parish Office.

Grief Support Group

Our Grief Support group for anyone who is facing loss and grief meets from 4:00 - 5:30pm on the following Mondays in the Parish Hall.

October 30, November 6, 13, and 20

ST. JAMES PASTORAL COUNCIL MEETING MINUTES MONDAY, OCTOBER 9, 2023

Vice-Chairman Phil Baumert called the meeting to order at 7:00pm. The following council members were present: Fr. Mike Roach, Dan Bacon, Phil Baumert, Corrine Katzer, Betsy Lewey, Joan Peluso, Sherri Porterfield, and Patrick Schaub. The opening prayer was given by Dan Bacon.

Old Business:

1. Point of Contact Ministry: Dan Bacon reported that we currently have 14 parishioners who have volunteered for this ministry. He stated that training will be scheduled very soon.
2. Emergency Assistance Ministry: Betsy Lewey informed the Council members that there was no new news concerning this ministry.
3. Hillcrest Ministries: This item of business was tabled until the November meeting as Council member Yvette Lopez was absent. She did send word via email that she is waiting for a response from Hillcrest Ministries regarding their new policies and would inform the Council once she has more information.

New Business:

The remainder of the meeting was dedicated to the development of questions for a survey to be given to the congregation. The purpose of this survey is to give the Council direction on having a "bird's eye picture" of the needs of the congregation in the areas of Spirituality and Community. With this purpose in mind the Council brainstormed and discussed questions which focused on the formation of basing their questions in relation to our church's mission statement. The importance of keeping the survey simple with questions to a minimum was also discussed. It was decided that in the areas of Spirituality and Community, questions will be stated in the form of a statement with the respondent agreeing or disagreeing with the statement. It was also discussed that a short explanation statement be given at the beginning of each section of the survey and a comments area be provided for the respondent at the end of the section.

Vice-Chairman Baumert asked the Council to review the questions created at this meeting and to create description statements or an explanation for each area of concern. The goal of the November meeting will be for the Council to finalize the questions to be included in the survey and further discuss and write the descriptions to be included at the beginning of each statement.

Closing:

Fr. Mike reported to the Council that the Pickleball Ministry seemed to be a positive contribution to creating community in our parish with quite a number of parishioners participating in this activity. He also said that the Grief Support Group was starting again and should be of help to those congregation members who have lost loved ones. Fr. Mike then closed the meeting with a prayer and the members prayed "The Lord's Prayer" together.

The Council's next meeting is Monday, November 13th at 7:00pm in the AV Conference Room. If you have any ideas or concerns for the Council, please contact Fr. Mike or Chairman Kevin Casel. If you would like to attend the meeting, please contact Kevin Casel no later than Thursday, November, 9th.

Respectfully submitted,

Sherri Porterfield, Pastoral Council Secretary

A HUGE THANK YOU!
To the Knights of Columbus!

This was no easy task and a very dirty one. We greatly appreciate the sweat equity these gentlemen provided for our parish home.

THANK YOU!

Commemoration Of The Faithful Departed

This tradition is upheld on All Souls' Day, which falls yearly on November 2.

It follows All Saints' Day (a Holy Day of Obligation), which is observed on Nov. 1.

While All Saints Day is a day when Catholics remember all who have already entered heaven, All Souls' Day is a day to pray for all loved ones who have died.

May the souls of the Faithful Departed,
through the Mercy of God,
rest in peace.
Amen

Please Don't Water The Plants

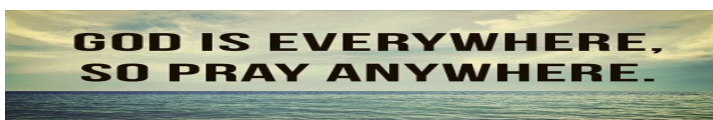

We appreciate that our parishioners care about appearances in our church buildings. So, it's natural that when seeing a plant that appears to need watering, they water it.

Please Don't !

We have a team of volunteers who take care of and water the plants on a regular basis. Extra water does not help the plants, rather it can result in the death of the roots and a loss of vigor in the plant. So, please leave the watering to our volunteers. If interested in volunteering, contact Jeanne Verssue 816-294-0236,

Thanks For Caring
