Mission Statement

We, the community of St. James, are a prayerful and Eucharistic people who treasure our Catholic traditions. We strive to grow in our faith by being good stewards of the gifts God has given us; sharing God's truth with all. As the Body of Christ, we are called to love and serve everyone, especially the marginalized, with joy and hospitality.

IMPORTANT SAFETY VIDEO TO BE SHOWN THIS WEEKEND

You are at Mass and a Tornado Warning occurs. What do you do? What happens during a Fire Alarm? These and other questions will be answered in a new video that explains the emergency plans for our sanctuary space at St. James.

Your safety is important to us. Please allow 12 minutes to view this important video thus weekend.

Thirty minutes before and after each Mass this weekend in the Parish Hall, the video will be playing in a continuous loop.

For the morning masses, come and have a coffee and donut and watch the video at the same time. If you cannot attend on this date, contact the parish office, we will arrange for you to view it in other ways.

Altar Server Training Tuesday, July 30

On Tuesday, July 30th beginning at 6:30pm until around 8:00pm, we will have the next server training, led by Deacon Chuck.

If you are in the 4th grade through High School and want to serve at Mass please attend this training in the church.

We are especially in need of servers at the 5:00pm Saturday, 8:00am Sunday, and 5:00pm on Sunday Masses.

There will be some paperwork to be filled out so that we can get you into the scheduling system, so parents need to attend the first part.

Please consider assisting with this important Ministry.

The Vatican Dicastery for the Laity, Family, and Life has called for a world-wide observance of a World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly this Sunday, July 28. A special Mass will be celebrated today in Rome at St. Peter's Basilica. It is likely that this day was chosen because it is close to the Feast of Saints Joachim and Anne, known in tradition as the parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary and therefore the grandparents of Jesus, a feast celebrated each year on July 26. It is expected that thousands from Rome and other places as well will turn out for the Mass and celebration.

In initiating this observance, Pope Francis recalled the Scripture even when Mary and Joseph presented Jesus in the Temple. There they encountered two elderly people, Simeon and Anna, who were inspired to recognize Jesus as the Messiah. Even today, the Pope says, the Holy Spirit stirs up thoughts and words of wisdom in the elderly. They remind us that old age is a gift and that grandparents are the link between the different generations to pass on to the young experiences of life and faith. We must never forget our grandparents. They preserve our spiritual roots and the passing on of our values.

Sometimes the elderly are placed in care facilities, are lonely and forgotten. It is also true that grandparents and the elderly are also treated with great respect. I have seen wonderful examples in our own parish family. Also we have excellent volunteers who visit the hospital and rest homes, giving such great care and comfort to the ones they visit. Thank you to Jeanne Verssue who organizes this ministry. It is a great gift to look into the face of an elderly person and see the face of Christ.

If you feel the calling to be involved in ministry to the homebound and those in care facilities, please call the parish office. May God bless you.

My prayers are with you each day.

Fr. Michael

Someone is Watching and Wondering

Synodality is a term that has been used in our Catholic Church to describe a process of collaboration and discernment, generally among Bishops, for addressing issues/teachings within our faith communities. The word “synod” comes from two Greek words meaning “walking together.” Broadly speaking synodality is the journey of living our faith together as the People of God. Synodality is a way of speaking and listening to one another, and reflecting on how God, through the Holy Spirit is speaking to all of us. Thus synodality becomes the pathway for addressing issues facing the Church, our contemporary 21st century society, and the natural world. In a synodal Church, therefore, the entire community, in all its diversity, comes together to pray, listen, dialogue, discern, or offer suggestions related to pastoral decisions, which align as closely as possible to the teachings and example of Jesus. Pope Francis continues to stress, however, that the church must first become synodal before dealing with critical, controversial issues; hence he called the Synod on Synodality which will meet for the second time this fall.

Watching this process unfolding, I continue to be amazed at what laity and clergy alike express as the issues our Church needs to address and what the Church should be saying to the world today. Here are a few examples of input I have read: challenge the world in terms of justice; people need to pray more; the church needs to speak out regarding sin in our world; we need to bring more people (bodies) into church; stop the evil of abortion; ordain women; allow priests to marry; improve preaching; return to the Latin Rite (pre-Vatican 2); increase devotional practices; and so on. Not once, however, have I found any comments regarding acceptance and kindness. How can we be synodal people if we continue to talk about “us vs them?” I don’t believe we can have a synodal church by shutting the doors to some individuals; by thinking in terms of winners and losers; through isolationism and nationalism; through exclusivity and withdrawal from ecumenism. I do not believe we can be a synodal church without listening to people living on the outskirts of society: the migrants and poor, the voices of those struggling to survive physically, emotionally and economically, family members torn apart by war and violence, the voiceless and little ones who have no one to speak for them. A synodal church is not, to my way of thinking, an institution of power and wealth. A synodal church is the “body of Christ” sharing God’s love and mercy through simple acts of kindness and compassion. Isaiah 40 begins with these words: “Comfort, give comfort to my people says your God.” For me, this is the essence of synodality/a synodal church; giving comfort and protection to all of God’s creation.

Your Sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

Hillcrest Hope Ministry

The Pastoral Council is managing the overall needs and expectations of Hillcrest Hope in our ongoing commitment of sponsoring an apartment and is spearheading the organization of volunteers to support our pledge to Hillcrest Hope and these families.

St. James sponsors one of the 11 apartments. It is ready for occupancy and should be filled soon.

Sponsoring those in "our" apartment gives St. James parishioners an opportunity to be involved in the experience and personally make it special for people who reside there.

There are many needs as well as wants that these families have. This is ongoing and can be daunting for just one or a few people, but with teams of volunteers, it doesn't take much time or effort on our parts and can make the journey of these families bright and so much easier.

There are 6 teams for which volunteers are needed.

See the Hillcrest Hope page on our St. James website for the list and responsibilities of each and more information about this ministry.

Parish Religious Education

Religious Education 2024/2025 Year

We are busy putting together the calendar for the RE programs this year. We are excited to continue to bring back traditions and build on those from last year. Trunk-or-Treat is being planned, Chris Cakes is reserved for Mardi Gras, and more ideas are brewing!

The first day of classes for all RE programs will be in September!

Registrations are now underway for PreK-7th grade RE, First Sacraments, Confirmation, and Camino. Thank you to those who have already registered!

As our parish transitions to the new Confirmation age being guided by The Way initiative, it is important your child is attending a religious education program from Kindergarten on. For those students who are incoming 5th, 6th, and 7th grade, you will be some of the first teens to receive Confirmation at the younger age and the next couple of years will be focused on preparation for this sacrament with you.

Families with 2nd graders or older and who intend for the child to receive first sacraments this year, your child must be enrolled in a religious education program AND First Sacrament preparation. Please note – these are two separate enrollments. School families will only need to enroll in First Sacraments.

Memorial of Saints Martha, Mary, and Lazarus ~ July 29

In the household of Bethany the Lord Jesus experienced the family spirit and friendship of Martha, Mary and Lazarus. Martha generously offered him hospitality, Mary listened attentively to his words and Lazarus promptly emerged from the tomb at the command of the One who humiliated death.

In February 2021, Pope Francis, considering the important evangelical witness they offered in welcoming the Lord Jesus into their home, in listening to him attentively decreed that July 29 be designated as the Memorial of Saints Martha, Mary and Lazarus.

We invite all to become "prayer warriors" and join us every Thursday at 6:30pm in the church as we pray the rosary for all those who are in need of healing prayer.
