From the Pastor's Pen

One of the very good Catholic magazines is "America, a Jesuit Review of Faith and Culture." Often provocative issues are featured which challenge the reader to analyze and reflect on Church liturgy and issues, facets of culture, and book reviews.

The October 2024, issue featured an interesting article, "How Can We Make the Liturgy More Reverent?" In fact, one of the recommendations of the first meeting of the Synod on Synodality was to explore the quality of liturgies in our Catholic Church. It is a somewhat controversial topic. What one person judges to be an indication of reverence may be entirely different from how another person evaluates the quality of liturgy. The basis for judgment really should be the "Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy" document of the Second Vatican Council. A key sentence from the document says: "Mother Church earnestly decrees that the faithful be led to a full, conscious, and active participation in liturgical celebrations which is demanded by the very nature of the liturgy...a right and obligation by reason of their baptism." In the article, two Catholics reflect on their experiences and expectations and share in conversation with much agreement but sometimes with a different point of view.

There are, of course, different opinions about what makes a liturgy, especially the Mass, a reverent experience. The heart of the liturgy is praying together, as opposed to private or devotional prayer. The liturgy includes communal prayer, music, gestures, words, actions, symbols, rituals. To be "reverent" means that full attention be focused on God, true devotion, respect, awe, honor, homage, praise.

When we are reverent, we try to avoid distractions, remain focused, act not to draw attention to ourselves, but to keep God at the center of the words, actions, and times of silence. We are not merely "going through the motions," but with sincere and genuine attention. We strive for that reverence.

Read the article and know that my prayers are with you.

Someone is Watching and Wondering

Please be patient with me as I continue to share my faith journey. Perhaps I left the impression with last week's writing that I am entering into or leaning on my Christian belief in the eschatological future. I do not believe this is the case. For me to do that would be a form of spiritual escapism, a delusion that looks for relief from my present condition or situation, on a future where everything will be exactly as I envision, with God in Heaven. In fact this is a denial of authentic Christian teachings which demands something on my part. Knowing God in the present insists on the inclusion of my difficult uncertainties, confusions, and seeking of truth.

In the "Constitution on the Church in the Modern World", Gaudium et Spes, the Second Vatican Council made clear that the primary purpose of civil governments is the protection and promotion of the common good. This document further states that those who disregard earthly responsibilities to our neighbors, especially the most vulnerable, because of distorted focus on the next life, are not living out their Christian faith appropriately. "They ARE mistaken who, knowing that we have here no abiding city but seek one which is to come, think that they may therefore shirk their earthly responsibilities." I cannot, therefore, as I move from personal darkness into Christ's light, naively hope for something better in the world to come. I must embrace my earthly responsibilities, seeking truth and working for the common good of all people. It is in seeking and trying to understand how God is calling me that I currently find myself confused. I have written about kindness, compassion, and empathy over the past few weeks, and I try to embrace these qualities. I feel, however, that I am being called to more. For many years I have walked with others on their journey of faith; I have listen to people share their grief, sorrows, disappointments, frustrations, and concerns. I have served to educate others about the sciences, facilitated trainings to provide safe environments for our children and youth, lead Bible studies, prepared many to receive the Sacraments, and offered spiritual direction to fellow seekers, yet I still feel God is calling me to do more. As I let go of an attitude of knowing my own path, I ask each of you to pray with me for direction and guidance. I offer myself in service to God and dare to address God as "Our Father, abba. We are all joined as sons and daughters of God, therefore, let us work together for unity and understanding.

"An Encounter With Awe"

December 1 & 4

The awesome God of the universe chose to come to earth and be born in human flesh because God loves us so much and wants us to be close to Him. When we experience Jesus, we are experiencing the awesome God who created the universe and who keeps it in existence, but at the same time this God wants to be very personal with each of us. Can you imagine that?

The Season of Advent invites us to personally encounter this awesome God. At first glance we might see an ordinary child. But look more deeply.

Join us for a two evening Advent Retreat in the St. James Parish Hall on December 1 and December 4 at 6:30 – 8:00pm led by Fr. Ron Will, C.P.P.S.

from the Precious Blood Renewal Center.

The word "Advent" means "Coming." God desires to come to each of us personally during this sacred season. This Retreat experience will help us open our eyes, ears, and hearts for the coming of the Lord in a new way and on a deeper level than ever before.

Mark your calendar now and reserve the times. If you can't attend both nights, come to the one that you can.

Memorial of The Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary November 21

The feast of the presentation of Mary dates back to the 6th century in the East and the 15th century in the West.

It is based on an ancient tradition that says Mary was taken to the temple in Jerusalem when she was 3-years-old and dedicated to God.

On this day we celebrate that God chose to dwell in Mary in a very special way. In response, she placed her whole self at the service of God.

Advent Giving Tree ~ Your Donations Make A Difference

The Advent Giving Tree is off to a great start. Thanks to all of you who have already donated. As you know, our Advent Giving Tree (AGT) has been a favorite ministry at St. James for many years. This year we will again use your donations to purchase Hope Program gift cards, which we will then donate to nine charitable organizations within the metro area.

Through December 1, you can contribute by:

- Placing your donation in the Advent Giving Tree donation box, located in the Gathering Space during all Masses
- Mailing your donation to St. James Catholic Church, Attention: AGT, 309 S. Stewart Rd., Liberty, MO 64068
- Dropping your donation off at the Parish office

NOTE: Please make checks payable to St. James Church (with "AGT" on the notation line).

This week we are highlighting six organizations:

Liberty Women's Clinic (LWC). Since 2002, LWC has been serving the needs of young women and families in our community by providing free pregnancy resources in a safe, accepting environment. LWC's objective is to help women make informed, life-affirming choices. LWC does not refer nor provide abortions. Your donations will continue to support LWC in its efforts to help needy mothers during their pregnancies.

Journey to New Life (JNL). JNL was founded in 2013. Its mission is to maximize quality of life for men and women returning to the community from prison. JNL helps these individuals reintegrate into the community, providing a welcoming place that offers respect while assisting with basic necessities, housing, and job assistance. Each year JNL serves approximately 2,000 people, including individuals with substance abuse and mental health conditions. Your AGT donations will continue to help provide funding for these valuable services.

Kansas City Indian Center (KCIC) operates as the metro area's only social service agency for American Indians. KCIC's mission is to encourage social, educational, and economic advancement of the American Indian community by promoting traditional and cultural values. Your AGT donations will continue to help support KCIC's food pantry and emergency assistance program.

Love, INC is a partnership of local Christian churches that have joined together to provide volunteer and financial support to the poor. Love, INC provides families with financial assistance and monthly care plans, and in many cases provides emergency rent or utility assistance. This year, AGT will again provide Hope gift cards to assist Love INC in creating gift bags that include fun Christmas items, as well as gift cards to help families purchase food or clothing.

Avalon View Health and Wellness (Avalon View) is a senior living and rehabilitation center in Liberty. Last year, through AGT, we used your donations to purchase small essentials, as well as some fun items for residents. The 87 residents were allowed to choose items they needed or wanted through a "Christmas shopping experience". This approach was well received, and we plan to do it again this year.

Cedars of Liberty is a retirement and assisted living facility in Liberty. As with Avalon View last year, we used AGT donations to gift 100 Cedar residents with small essentials and some fun items. Residents loved this approach, and we plan to do it again this year.

Thank you for helping to make the
St. James Advent Giving Tree
a bright spot for those in need.

Parish Religious Education

PreK-5th Grade

We were so thrilled to have Fr. Michael stop by this past weekend and visit our 1st grade, 2nd grade, 3rd grade and 4th grade classes. It is always a nice surprise to have him visit, answer our questions, and share more about our faith. The children truly appreciate and enjoy it as well. Thank you, Fr. Michael!

I was able to spend some time with 3rd grade and I just want to say how extremely proud I was of them. They began the class praying the Sign of the Cross, Our Father, Hail Mary, and the Apostles Creed. Everyday prayers we should know, and they prayed them amazingly!

Did you know? St. Elizabeth of Hungary's feast day is November 17th. She is known for her acts of charity and kindness. Because of her work caring for the poor and the sick, she is often associated with hospitals and charities.

St. Cecilia's feast day is November 22nd. She is celebrated as the patron saint of music and musicians. She famously sang praises to God as she faced martyrdom and is an example of our expression of faith through song.

Middle School

This past week at class we spent time playing a game to see which team could put the Nicene Creed into the right order first. The youth did great and it was a fun way to practice and learn the prayer by which we profess our faith and beliefs every weekend at Mass. The small group discussions we had as we broke down the prayer was great to hear.

Parents – be on the lookout for an email regarding our next class

Camino de Santiago

The teens participated in an activity learning about the Beatitudes and then were asked to reflect on ways they find happiness. We shared examples of where in our lives we have seen the Beatitudes lived out. We would love to have leaders of our parish ministries come and share how their ministry relates to living the Beatitudes, or any parishioner who may have an interest in sharing experiences with the teens.

Please see the Remind message regarding signups for the St. Mary's Soup kitchen on Sunday, November 24th as this will be our class.

First Sacraments

An email went out last Sunday to all families with information to help with First Reconciliation Masses. Please check your spam folder if you are not receiving messages from me.

All families should be near completion of the workbook and videos.

We ask the St. James community to keep these kids in prayer as they receive the gift of their First Reconciliation.

Next Classes

11/17 – PreK-5: 9:10-10:20am (St. James School)

11/24 – Middle School: 6-7:15pm (Parish Hall)

11/24 – Camino: Service Day at St. Mary's Soup Kitchen

12/1 – Confirmation: 6-7:30pm (Parish Hall)

A Big Thank You

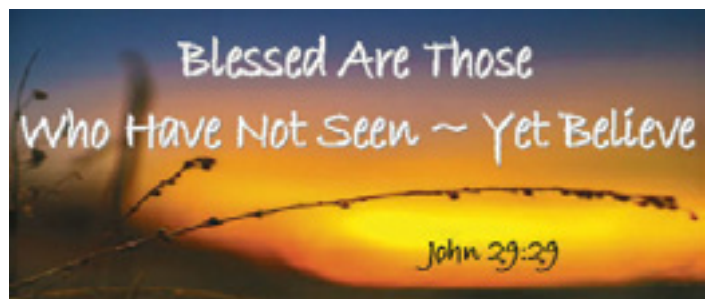

Our Spaghetti Dinner was a huge success! Thank you to all who stopped in for a meal to support our youth attending the Steubenville Conference in July.

Thank you to the teens who served at the dinner. We also had a wonderful team of adults who helped with the planning and collecting donations for the dinner. A special Thank You goes to our "head chefs", Larry Donnici and Matt Maggi!

We also want to acknowledge the local businesses that donated supplies to help make the dinner a success: J&S Pizza, Hy-Vee, Price Chopper, Roma Bread, Sam's Club, Sprouts and Walmart.

Thank you again for your support of providing our teens with memorable and life-changing Catholic

St. Cecilia Feast Day ~ November 22

For centuries St. Cecilia has remained one of the church's most beloved saints. However, all we know about Cecilia comes from a fifth-century legend that has no historical evidence to support it, except that the two young men featured in the story, Valerian and Tiburtius, were known to have been martyred in the third century and buried in the catacombs. However, no catacomb grave or contemporary writer validates the fascinating tale of St. Cecilia.

According to the story, despite her vow of virginity, she was forced by her parents to marry a nobleman named Valerian. During the wedding, Cecilia sat apart, singing to God in her heart, and for that she was later declared the saint of musicians. When the time came for her marriage to be consummated, Cecilia told Valerian that she had an angel of the Lord watching over her who would punish him if he dared to violate her virginity but who would love him if he could respect her maidenhood.

When Valerian asked to see the angel, Cecilia replied that he would see the angel if he would go and be baptized by Pope Urbanus. After his baptism, he saw an angel standing by the side of Cecilia, and crowning her with a chaplet of roses and lilies. Valerian's brother, Tiburtius, also converted. Because this was during the time of the Roman persecutions, the two new Christians were caught and beheaded for burying the bodies of those who had been martyred.

Cecilia was condemned for refusing to worship the gods. An attempt to suffocate her in her own baths failed. So a soldier was ordered to behead her, but he bungled the job. Cecilia lay dying for three days.. She is said to have perished in Sicily under the reign of Marcus Aurelius between the years 176 and 180.

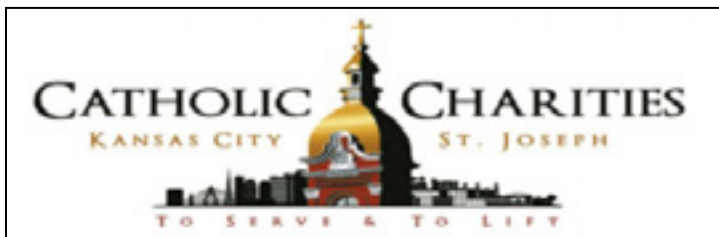

COUNSELING / SPIRITUAL DIRECTION

He has offices in Liberty and in midtown KC, and accepts donations in lieu of set fees.

Join Us In Prayer Rosary For Healing Thursdays at 6:30pm

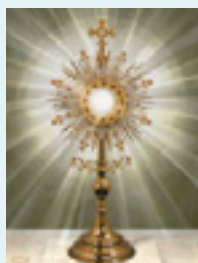

Did you know that there are many in our parish who are struggling with serious health issues? Some are on our prayer chain. And then, there are others we don't know about - they prefer to keep their health issues private.

We invite all to become "prayer warriors" and join us every Thursday at 6:30pm in the church as we pray the rosary for all those who are in need of healing prayer.

The prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well. James 5:15
