From the Pastor's Pen

This past week, following the feast of the Baptism of the Lord, we have moved into Ordinary Time, until Ash Wednesday (March 5), when we enter the Lenten season.

This month we celebrate the Week of Christian Unity and traditionally, the Liberty Ministerial Alliance will host an Evening of Prayer, on Thursday, January 23rd, at Community of Christ Church, at 7pm. This is a wonderful event of many different denominations coming together and celebrate our Unity as Christians. All are welcome to join us, and there's always a great reception afterwards.

Then on Saturday, the Ministerial Alliance hosts a workshop at the Precious Blood Renewal Center on living out our Christian Unity. The workshop is held from 10am to 12 Noon, on Saturday, January 25.

All are welcome to come and join us!

Then at the end of the month, we celebrate "Catholic Schools Week" from January 25-31.

We are proud of St. James, and its commitment to passing on the gift of Catholic education, and we are very proud of the outstanding education offered here at St. James from Pre-school - 8th Grade. We are also very proud of our Secondary Catholic education at St. Pius X High School.

On Saturday, January 25th, the School community will be leading us in our 5pm Liturgy and our great School Choir, led by Hannah Power, will be leading us in song.

Following the Mass, there will be an OPEN HOUSE. This is a great opportunity to take a tour of our School, and again, all are welcome.

Also, next Sunday morning, January 26, our Knights of Columbus are offering their 'Breakfast Burritos'. They are a great treat, and we are grateful for the Knights who help support so many different ministries including the seminarians of our Diocese. Thanks for supporting our K of C.

May you keep warm through this month of January, and survive, whatever 'winter weather' might be coming our way!

Blessings,

Fr. Mike

Blood Drive January 28

We are followers of Christ called to care for others. As a parish community, we can nurture those in need by making our next blood drive a huge success. When you donate blood, you are giving a small gift of yourself, but it represents an extraordinary blessing for someone else. Your participation is key to impacting the lives of our neighbors.

You are invited to join us as we host Community Blood Center on Tuesday, January 28th from 12:30-6:30pm in the Social Hall.

Appointments are encouraged and can be made online at www.savealifenow.org/group using group code ES, or by using the QR code below. Walk-ins will be welcome if capacity allows. If you have medical eligibility questions, please call 1-800-688-0900.

For other questions or help scheduling your appointment, contact Nikki at kpower@kc.rr.com or 816-407-1208.

IMPORTANT SAFETY VIDEO TO BE SHOWN Before/After All Masses Next Weekend

We are once again showing the Parishioner Safety Video in the Parish Hall next weekend before and after all Masses.

This video covers our emergency response plans for Fire, Tornado and Medical events including an evacuation of the sanctuary.

Your safety is important to us. If you missed the first showing this is your chance to catch up. The video will be shown in a continuous loop thirty minutes before and after each weekend Mass on January 25-26. Please allow 12 minutes to view this important video.

Someone is Watching and Wondering

Many of you will recognize this picture as one of the main characters from the musical "Phantom of the Opera," the phantom himself. For me, the phantom represents all of us, who at one time or another feel the necessity to hide behind a mask. The phantom, was hiding so much more than physical defects. He was hiding from the ridicule and rejection of others. His experience and belief was that no one who saw his face could truly love him. He felt shame, anger, and great loneliness, his humanity rejected. In seeking solace, he lived in the lowest levels of the opera house, only emerging to hide in the darkness of a theater box, always wearing his mask.

I must admit having hidden behind a variety of masks: makeup, hair dye, clothes and jewelry, pride, smiles, solemn looks, intellect, fear, forced pleasure and gaiety, piety, and ego. While none of these are wrong in and of themselves, when used to hide my true self, in order to feel acceptance, and loved they are an abuse of God's gift, the uniqueness of my humanity. I tried for so long to fit the physical image of what I perceived from others as beautiful: what my outward appearance should be. I couldn't believe what I saw in the mirror was desirable. I had experienced bullying and rejection, and I wanted desperately to "fit-in."

When trying to change my physical appearance didn't work, I immersed myself in intellectual pursuits believing that if I was smarter, knew more, I would be accepted. Next I tried activities that seemed to bring others joy; always smiling even when I felt discouraged and left out. I immersed myself in religion, with my sense of egotistical piety, yet I felt empty, drained trying to be someone else. At some point I realized that while trying to discover myself, I was hiding from the reality of me. While I believed that God allowed me to be free, choosing to be what and who I am, to be real or unreal, true or false, I have come to understand that I cannot simply be, I must work with God in the creation of my own life, my own identity, and my own destiny. I cannot passively exist, replacing one mask with another so as to "fit-in" to my false reality of existence, I must actively participate in God's creative freedom in my life and in the lives of other. I must choose TRUTH as revealed in Jesus' words, proclaiming a loving father whom I dare to call abba. To work out my identity requires risk, anguish, and many tears. The secret of my identity is hidden in God. God makes me who I am. Finding my true identity is finding God, calling me to give my love to abba.

Your Sister in Christ, Sandy Gagnon

Cosponsored with the Liberty Ministerial Alliance

In these times, more than ever, we need to find and emulate individuals whose lives bear witness to the unity that God wants for God's family.

Today we will hear three stories about individuals who have stepped up and made genuine efforts to understand "the other" and helped others to live in harmony and peace.

Their stories — two Northern Irish women, a Muslim and a Catholic ministering among non-Catholics — will challenge us to move beyond wringing our hands at circumstances that divide us and seek out "the other" as a first step to clearing up misunderstandings and healing divisions.

We'll hear from and about:

1. Betty Williams and Mairead Maguire who received the Nobel Peace Prize in 1976 for their efforts to peacefully resolve the violent conflict between Catholics and Protestants in Northern Ireland.
2. Eyyup Esen, a Turkish Muslim who as leader of the Dialogue Institute of Kansas City and the Raindrop Foundation has bridged religious, cultural and ethnic divides.
3. Glenmary Brother Craig Digmann whose decades of work in rural Appalachia has broken down barriers between Protestant and Catholic communities.

After hearing these stories, we will discuss what we can learn from them and apply it to our own present divisions. We will discuss how we motivate ourselves and our congregations to work for great unity.

St. Agnes ~ Virgin and Martyr Feast Day January 21

St. Agnes of Rome was born in 291 AD and raised in a Christian family. Agnes was very beautiful and belonged to a wealthy family. Her hand in marriage was highly sought after, and she had many high ranking men chasing after her. However, Agnes made a promise to God never to stain her purity. Her love for the Lord was great and she hated sin even more than death!

Whenever a man wished to marry Agnes, she would always say, "Jesus Christ is my only Spouse."

According to legend, the young men she turned away became so angry and insulted by her devotion to God and purity that they began to submit her name to authorities as a Christian follower.

At each refusal, she continued to say "I am already promised to the Lord of the Universe. He is more splendid than the sun and the stars, and He has said He will never leave me!"

Ultimately because of her refusals, powerful men condemned her to death. She died a virgin-martyr at the on January 21, 304.

St. Agnes is widely known as the patron saint of young girls. She is also the patron saint of chastity, rape survivors and the Children of Mary.

She is often represented with a lamb, the symbol of her virgin innocence, and a palm branch, like other martyrs. She is shown as a young girl in robes holding a palm branch with the lamb either at her feet or in her arms.

You Are Invited To Eucharistic Adoration

Jesus invites you to meet with Him in the Chapel every Tuesday and/or Thursday from 9am- 9pm.

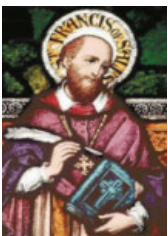

Please come for a few moments or for an hour or anytime that works best for you.

Please notify us to remove your name from our prayer lists when it is time.

In respect of HIPAA we will add names to the prayer list only by request of the person or immediate family.

Please pray for the sick

St. Francis de Sales Feast Day January 24

St. Francis de Sales (1567-1622) was a patient man. Throughout his life he waited for God's will to be clear. He believed the way to holiness was through prayer.

Although unusual for his era, he believed in promoting the holiness of lay people and wrote letters and books for their spiritual direction.

He often told others that he believed that "True virtue has no limits, but goes on and on, and especially holy charity, which is the virtue of virtues."

Join Us In Prayer Rosary For Healing Thursdays at 6:30pm

Did you know that there are many in our parish who are struggling with serious health issues? Some are on our prayer chain. And then, there are others we don't know about - they prefer to keep their health issues private.

We invite all to become "prayer warriors" and join us every Thursday at 6:30pm in the church as we pray the rosary for all those who are in need of healing prayer.

The prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well. James 5:15
