From the Pastor's Pen

As we have begun our journey of Lent, we pray for our Elect and Candidates, who are preparing for the Sacraments of Initiation and full Communion in the Catholic Church at Easter.

We also lift up our second graders who are preparing for their First Holy Communion in the Easter season.

A special thanks to all the folks who worked so hard on our St. Joseph Table honoring St. Joseph. We are most grateful, The table was so beautiful, and the Italian cookies, as always, were delicious. All the proceeds go to the benefit the poor and the needy!!

Friday was our first of three Fish Fry's. What great feast! The next two Fish Fries are on March 28 and April 11. A special thanks to our Knights of Columbus for a great meal, and their tremendous efforts to make them so successful.

A reminder that our Lenten Penance Service will be on Tuesday, April 8th. We will have several priests available, and a beautiful evening of Reconciliation.

Also, the Lenten season provides great opportunities to take advantage of the many events here at St. James. Take a moment to see all that is offered in the bulletin and on our website.

Thanks also to those who are participating in '40 Days, 40 Letters of Hope'. These Prayer Warriors are reaching out with supportive notes to folks who are going through difficult struggles.

Today in this column, I'd like to share with you some news about me. After 44 years as a parish pastor and the past 14 years as your pastor here at St. James, I will be retiring as of July 1, 2025. I'm sharing this news with you through this article, rather than at Mass because I would get too emotional to speak about it at Mass! And, although I'll not be your pastor, I'll still be around here at St. James as a 'senior priest', similar to Fr. Michael's role here. I'll continue living here in Liberty as my family is here. So, you'll continue seeing me here at St. James from time to time.

Blessings to you and your family this Lenten season!

Peace, Fr. Mike

Join The St. James Lawn Mowing Team

Spring will be coming real soon and our lawn mowing teams need some fresh talent. Starting no later than mid-April, we will want to have our lawn mowing teams up and running.

We have quite a few guys returning from last year but we need at least ten or more people to step up and help. Just like last season, we plan on having three teams (Red, White and Blue). Each team will be placed on a 3 week rotation.

There is no need for anyone to bring up mowers or other equipment. We just need them to volunteer approximately 3 hours every 3 weeks. If they can run a push mower or a riding mower then we can use their help. The schedule is dependent upon the weather but usually mowing is done from Thursday through Saturday.

Someone is Watching and Wondering

Discernment continues as part of my Lenten journey; specifically how and from what should I FAST? In past years my fasting has been focused on food; eating less, smaller meals, eliminating snacking and specific foods. Other years my focus was on fasting from harmful behaviors, and ingrained (not life-giving) habits. There have even been a few times when my Lenten fast centered on replacing negativity with positive thoughts and actions. Given the current state of our world and what I am feeling this year, my fasting is deeply rooted in solidarity with the poor and God's forgotten children; discerning what I should change to live a simpler life .

Thanksgiving 2024 Michael and I spent our day serving people at St. Mary's. This was the first holiday that we weren't with family, sharing a bounty of food. The experience was humbling. So many people thanked us and offered blessings to us. Some we served were obviously homeless and carrying their few possessions in small backpacks. On our drive home, Michael and I shared our experience and feelings with one another, and we both realized that we received more that day than what we gave. Since then I have realized that my life is marked by excess: a nice home which is seasonally warmed and cooled, food anytime of the day, entertainment at the click of a button, medical care, money for pleasures (mostly books, music, and garden supplies), and a modest level of security for the future. My home is witness to excess of possessions: collectables, clothing, seasonal décor, and items for personal comfort. Yet, those we served on Thanksgiving, often with eyes downcast, quietly thanked and blessed us.

Over the years, I have justified my life style: I worked hard, saved, and took care of myself (at least from age 18). I give of my time, limited talent, and treasures to help others. At the end of the day, however, I rest in a comfortable bed, in a safe, secure home, protected from the elements, without hunger pains. Sorry to say, I don't have great answers that satisfy my need to do more and live with less. My Lenten Fast, 2025, however, is centered around surrendering myself, my ego, my selfish wants and desires to God. I pray that God will lead me and provide guidance on what I should be doing to live more fully in solidarity with my brothers and sisters. I desire to fast from instructing God with my needs, to trust in the love and grace which Jesus' gave through his life, death, and resurrection, and to pray that I can continue this fast, long after this Lenten season passes; turning from sin and being faithful to the Gospel.

2nd Sunday of Lent ~ The Transfiguration

For the second Sunday of Lent, we move from Jesus' retreat to the desert to His Transfiguration. Each year on the first Sunday of Lent, our Gospel tells the story of Jesus' temptation in the desert.

On the second Sunday of Lent each year, we hear the story of Jesus' Transfiguration.

The story of Jesus' Transfiguration is told in the three Synoptic Gospels: Matthew, Mark, and Luke. In each of those Gospels, the Transfiguration follows Jesus' first prediction of his death and his teaching about the costs of discipleship. Jesus' Transfiguration is a promise of Jesus' glory, His Resurrection.

*Being Sealed
With The Holy Spirit*

Congratulations to Our Youth Confirmed by Bishop Johnston on February 26

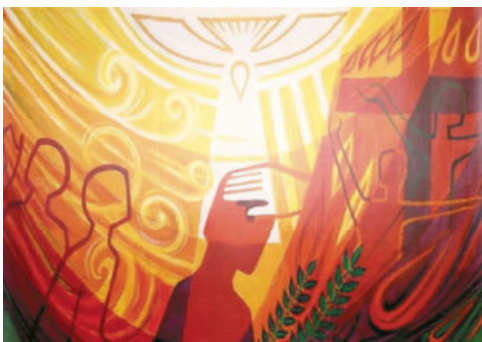

On Wednesday, February 26, 68 teens received the Sacrament of Confirmation with Bishop Johnston presiding. The parish community of St. James congratulates these young adults and invites them into fellowship with the Church.

Congratulations to our newly confirmed!

Let us join them in prayer as we all strive to deepen our relationship with Jesus Christ.

Confirmation ~ Receiving the Gifts of the Holy Spirit

Being confirmed is a very important part of our spiritual growth. The Catholic Church believes that our souls need to grow in maturity in our life of grace.

The Sacrament of Confirmation completes the process of our initiation into the Christian community confirming what was begun in Baptism and nourished in the Holy Eucharist.

Our souls are given the grace, power and energy to go forth and become soldiers of Christ. We are given the spiritual duty to fight the war between good and evil, light and darkness, between the human race and the powers of Satan and hell.

In Confirmation we are given the same 7 gifts: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety and fear of the Lord and 12 fruits: charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, forbearance, gentleness, faith, modesty, self-control and chastity that were given to the apostles and Mary on Pentecost (See Acts 2:1-4.)

The 7 gifts are supernatural graces given to the soul, while the 12 fruits are human qualities activated by the Holy Spirit that give us the courage to practice and live our faith as disciples of Christ.

It is in and through Confirmation that we accept responsibility for our faith and our spiritual destiny and we acknowledge that we want Christ to be the center of our lives.

Our second group of students in our Confirmation program will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation on Friday, March 21.

Parish Religious Education

PreK-5th Grade

This past weekend, the youth in 2nd-5th grades began the Lenten season by going to reconciliation during class. While there they continued to practice to receive communion, walked the Stations of the Cross, or looked around the sanctuary for the sacramental oils, the Baptismal font, and other symbols of our faith.

Middle School

We were able to take the middle school up for reconciliation during class this past weekend. The group was also led in games to learn more about the Lenten season. It was a fantastic way to begin the journey to Easter.

Please note – we will be adding a class on Sunday, April 6th from 6-7:15.

A HUGE thank you to Fr. Mike and Fr. Michael for hearing the confessions of all 2nd-7th grade youths in the morning and the evening. We appreciate you!

Camino

This group of teens spent the evening together talking about the 8th Beatitude “Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven”. In addition, they had discussions about the apostles. Great conversations as we prepare for Easter and the journey through Lent.

First Sacraments

Saturday, March 15th was our 2nd retreat for First Communion. Thank you to all who attended and to the parents for their help and support. Please continue to work with your child to complete the Received videos and workbook. At home, we encourage you to continue to practice receiving communion. Please be sure to sign up for a First Communion Mass if you have not already done so.

Confirmation

We will celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit with our next group of teens on Friday, March 21st. We ask that you continue to lift them, their sponsors, and their families as they prepare to receive this sacrament.

St. Patrick Feast Day March 17

There are many legends and stories about St. Patrick. Perhaps the most well known is the legend that he drove all of the snakes out of Ireland. However, all evidence suggests that post-glacial Ireland never had snakes.

Patrick preached and converted all of Ireland for 40 years, working many miracles and writing of his love for God in Confessions. After years of living in poverty, traveling and enduring much suffering he died March 17, 461.

Patrick was a humble, pious, gentle man who had total devotion to and trust in God.

He feared nothing, not even death, so complete was his trust in God, and of the importance of his mission.

Birthdays this week: Today we celebrate all that you with God's help, have accomplished.

Join Us In Prayer Rosary For Healing Thursdays at 6:30pm

Did you know that there are many in our parish who are struggling with serious health issues? Some are on our prayer chain. And then, there are others we don't know about - they prefer to keep their health issues private.

We invite all to become "prayer warriors" and join us every Thursday at 6:30pm in the church as we pray the rosary for all those who are in need of healing prayer.

You Are Invited To Eucharistic Adoration

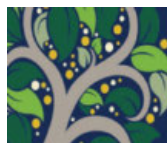

Jesus invites you to meet with Him in the Chapel every Tuesday and/or Thursday from 9am- 9pm.

Please come for a few moments or for an hour or anytime that works best for you.

Please notify us to remove your name from our prayer lists when it is time.

In respect of HIPAA we will add names to the prayer list only by request of the person or immediate family.
