From the Pastor's Pen

This weekend we come to the end of March, we know that Spring is upon us, and we continue to move closer to the feast of Easter.

This Sunday, the 4th Sunday of Lent, we've reached the half-way point of the Lenten Season. Known as Laetare Sunday, it's the Church's way of giving us a "shot in the arm" as we approach the darkness and horror of the days through Good Friday and Holy Saturday. You can find out more about Laetare Sunday on page 7 of this bulletin.

We remember our Elect and Candidates who are preparing for the Sacraments of Initiation and reception into the Catholic faith. We lift up these men and women on their journey to the fullness of the Catholic Church.

We also pray in gratitude for our young children, who are preparing for the Sacrament of the Eucharist, the reception of the Body and Blood of Christ, in the Easter season.

And with the month of April upon us, we pray for our young people who are preparing for graduation from high school and college. We pray that they might be led by God's love and guidance as they make choices about their future.

We pray in gratitude also for the "Spring-like" weather as the flowers and blossoms begin to appear. May we be sources of God's New Life upon us.

A couple of reminders, The next two Fridays we continue to have Stations of the Cross at 5:30pm in the church and on Good Friday, April 18, Stations will be held in the prayer garden (weather permitting) at 3:00pm. And, secondly, our Parish Reconciliation Service will be on Tuesday, April 8 at 7:00pm.

Blessings to you and your family as we move into Spring.

Peace,

Fr. Mike

Someone is Watching and Wondering

There are many times when I think too much with my mind, searching for solutions to problems and answers to difficult questions; while spending almost no time listening to my heart. This trait of mine is especially apparent when I try to live my faith and beliefs about God while balancing the realities of the world in which I live. I attempt to name/blame responsible persons/groups while failing to accept my part in world-wide concerns in which I think I have very little influence. Simultaneously there are times I wear blinders to conditions within my faith community, neighborhood, social groups, and individuals I encounter. While looking for ways in which I can solve the world's problems, I ignore the simple answer to my blindness, found in the Good News of Christ Jesus.

William of Ockham (Occam) was a Franciscan friar who lived from 1287 until 1347. He is considered to be one of the major figures in medieval thought and developed a methodology know as Occam's razor. A simplified version of his theory states: given two competing explanations for the same problem (with all else equal), the simpler answer is preferred. For example, I have a headache. Since I have been working outside in the heat, and sweating profusely, the simple solution is I am probably dehydrated, need to take a break, cool down, and drink water. The complex answer: I have a brain tumor and must seek urgent care. Perhaps this sounds absurd, but I hope you get the concept.

There are many times I feel helpless by the sinfulness and brokenness, the anger and hatred, extreme poverty contrasted to extreme wealth and privilege which seems so prevalent in the world. My anxiety is compounded by the realization of my own physical, financial, and state of life limitations which seem to block my ability to be part of the solution. I feel as though the solutions are to complex and far removed from my abilities and lack of influence, so I ignore the obvious.

During this Lenten season I have been rereading familiar scripture passages looking for new direction in my life and ministry. I found a wealth of jewels in the Letter of St. James, which not only touched my heart but challenged me to focus on sharing my faith through simple actions (follow Occhams advice): "Faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead," (James 2:26). While I continue to pray that God will help me find direction and purpose; help me to use the graces I have been given to show the mercy, forgiveness, and love which Jesus proclaimed, I am given words that find meaning in my heart: be kind, loving, and help others. I believe that such simple actions, by a single person, have a great deal of influence for change in our world. Like a pebble thrown into a lake, the ripples spread until the whole is affected. I pray, Lord, let me a pebble, that my ripples may spread your love and mercy.

ST. JAMES PASTORAL COUNCIL MEETING MINUTES MONDAY, March 11, 2025

Chairperson Joan Peluso called the meeting to order at 7:00pm. Council Members present were Fr. Mike Roach, Deacon Chuck Koesterer, Eddie Baker, Phil Baumert, Kevin Casel, Chris Fullinwider, Betsy Lewey, Joan Peluso, and Corrine Sebranek. The opening prayer was said by Eddie Baker.

Special Guest: The council welcomed St. James parishioner Ann Marie Puck who is the Southwest Commander of the Fr. Vincent Capodanno Memorial Post 1974 of the Catholic War Veterans of the United States. In connection with our parish mission statement, Ann Marie developed the St. James War Veterans Ministry which serves, supports and upholds the values that make our nation and faith strong. Through the development of youth programs, involvement in community outreach and providing services, this ministry provides a place for all military whether they be active duty, retired or affiliated with a Reserve or National Guard and their families to connect with each other and provide stories in their faith. Ann Marie gave the Council a history of prayer connected with the ministry and talked about a special prayer book, Armed with Faith, that is given to veterans and current military alike. Each time the members meet they are devoted to prayer and to a military saint. Ann Marie, who also has a master's degree in theology sees the organization in an evangelistic role in which the organization helps new military parishioners to realize that through their Catholic faith they can overcome any difficulties they may encounter in the transition from military to civilian life. Members are involved with the Honor Flights for Veterans and work closely with Catholic Charities. The ministry participates in a retreat each year held in April or May at the Jesuit White House Retreat Center in St. Louis.

Ann Marie asked the Council to consider helping to develop a special prayer service to honor our veterans and be an advocate for the veterans and their families. The upcoming issue of our diocesan magazine, The Catholic Key, will include an article to give a deeper understanding of this important and needed ministry.

Old Business:

Chairperson Joan Peluso briefly updated everyone on Fr. Timothy's development of a Post-Youth Program. He is connecting other area churches to ask how they run their programs.

Members discussed ways to assist other St. James ministries. One option mentioned was each Council member contacting several ministries to see how we can help them. More will be discussed on this topic with the development of common verbiage to be used at the April meeting. Discussion was also held about sponsoring and organizing a Parish Ministry Fair this coming fall in August or September after the 8:00 and 10:30 Masses. Members were asked to consider helping with the organization of this event.

Betsy Lewey confirmed with the Council members who would be helping with the Confirmation receptions. She also let the Council know what a success the recent Hillcrest Hope graduation ceremony was. The dinner and ceremony for 3 graduates and their families was held at St. James Parish Hall and will probably become an annual event. If so, there will be a need to form a graduation team as this event is a big undertaking. Finally, she gave a brief update on our apartment resident.

New Business:

Chairperson Joan Peluso told the Council that Retreat Leader, Jay Meacham is asking that we consider a theme for the August Council Retreat to held August 2nd at the Precious Blood Center. A short discussion followed with consideration of a theme concerning transition and change but no selection of a theme was decided. More discussion will follow at the April meeting.

Deacon Chuck Koesterer told the Council that we have a new deacon, Juan Rodriguez who will also be serving St. Regis Catholic Church. He also told the Council that the St. James School Auction Committee would like to get the parish more involved in the auction held each fall. Possibly the Council might consider helping with this activity.

Eddie Baker asked members to try to attend the Knights of Columbus Fish Frys. In addition, Joan Peluso asked Council members to wear their badge if they attended. Both Eddie and Joan stated that this parish activity is very fun and a great way to meet and talk with parishioners as well as community members who attend.

Closing: Fr. Mike closed the meeting with a prayer and the members prayed the "Our Father" together. Chair Joan Peluso adjourned at 8:11pm.

The Council's next meeting is Monday, April 14th at 7:00pm p.m. in the AV Conference Room. If you have any ideas or concerns for the Council, please contact Fr. Mike or Chairperson Joan Peluso. If you would like to attend the meeting, please contact Joan Peluso no later than Thurs. April 10th. Respectfully submitted,
Sherri Porterfield, Pastoral Council Secretary

Hillcrest Hope News

Sponsored Resident

As many of you know, St. James sponsors an apartment for Hillcrest Hope. This is a dept reducing/eliminating program where residents get the support they need to succeed on their own. There was a notice in the bulletin to update you that we were to get a resident very soon and we prepared everything as needed, but that fell through. About 2 months ago, we were notified that we would have another resident moving in and she had already been in one of their other apartments for a couple of weeks. Soon Kayla was in our sponsored apartment with 5 children under the age of 6. We provided her with groceries and also dinners for a couple of weeks. She was thriving in the apartment and very appreciative of our St. James community. However, a single mom of 5 little ones and a full time job is a lot to handle and she has decided to move to Texas to live with her parents, which will be a supportive move for her and her children. We will be filling the apartment again and will start over with our support, we will keep you updated with that information!

Hillcrest Graduation

We also sponsored one of the three annual graduations that Hillcrest has for its residents that succeed in the program. There were 3 graduates from the program this past February and we supported this graduation. It was a beautiful celebration with over 60 people in attendance. Residents, graduates, family, friends, and Hillcrest staff were all among those in attendance. Hillcrest Hope staff was very grateful and impressed with the food and decorations we provided for them. They said it was the most thoughtful and beautifully decorated graduations for them to date – and the food was wonderful! We will be sponsoring one graduation a year for them as we move forward. Thank you to all those that were a part in putting that together so quickly.

St James Hillcrest Volunteers

One more item – there have been several emails sent to all volunteers over the past couple of months. If you are not receiving them and you volunteered to be on one of the Hillcrest teams, please contact us so we can be sure your contact information is corrected.

Thank you St. James for all your support with this important ministry. For any questions or volunteer opportunities, please contact

It never fails. On the fourth Sunday of Lent someone always asks “why are the vestments pink, not purple today?”

The answer is that the Fourth Sunday of Lent is known as “Laetare Sunday.” The day’s theme comes from the entrance antiphon reflecting on Isaiah 66:10-11: “Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her. Be joyful, all who were in mourning; exalt and be satisfied at her consoling breast.”

Laetare is the first word – meaning “rejoice” – in the Latin text. On Laetare Sunday (as similarly with the Third Sunday of Advent’s Gaudete Sunday) the Church expresses hope and joy in the midst of our Lenten fasts and penances. Call it pink – or, more fittingly, rose – this change in color indicates a glimpse of the joy that awaits us at Easter, just before we enter into the somber days of Passiontide.

Laetare Sunday is the Church’s way of giving us a “shot in the arm” as we approach the darkness and horror of the days through Good Friday and Holy Saturday. It’s an opportunity to savor and keep in the back of our minds what awaits us on Easter Sunday – the reality that Jesus Christ is risen from the dead, and that our hearts will always be filled with joy!

Being aware of traditions and customs assists us in celebrating the beauty of our faith. As you can see, there is much associated with even a nondescript day like the Fourth Sunday of Lent – not to mention the rest of the season, or the 50 days of Easter and beyond. Take advantage of the richness of our Catholic traditions.
